MAY HEAT WAVE WAS 1.5° CELSIUS WARMER THAN PREVIOUS EXTREMES

Findings of a new rapid attribution study underscore that heat waves in India are reaching unbearable temperature thresholds

HUMAN-DRIVEN CLIMATE CHANGE BLAMED

Researchers at ClimaMeter said the intense heat wave India endured in May was a result of the naturally occurring El Nino phenomenon and the rapidly increasing concentration of greenhouse gases in the atmosphere due to fossil fuel burning. They called it "a largely unique event" that can be ascribed to human-driven climate change | P9

URBANISATION MAKING HEAT WAVES WORSE

- "Warming resulting from climate change has led to an increased frequency, intensity, and duration of heat-related events, including heat waves in most land regions," the researchers noted
- They said rapid urbanisation as seen in India can enhance heat waves as concretes trap heat during the day and release them at night

SWEARING-IN OF THE NEW COUNCIL OF MINISTERS TO BE HELD TOMORROW AT 7.15 PM

Modi appointed PM-designate by President Murmu

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

PRESIDENT Droupadi Murmu on Friday appointed Narendra Modi prime minister-designate after the latter staked his claim to lead the NDA government for the third consecutive time.

The ceremony to administer the oath of office and secrecy to him and his ministerial colleagues will begin at 7.15 pm on Sunday at Rashtrapati Bhavan.After Modi met Murmu, she satisfied herself about the NDA coalition commanding majority in the 18th Lok Sabha before issuing the appointment letter. The letter said the BJP was the single largest party and the NDA the largest pre-poll coalition.

Emerging from Rashtrapati Bhavan, Modi told the media, "As NDA partners have entrusted me with their leadership once again, I will take oath as the PM on June 9. NDA-III will put in even more efforts for developments of India and the realisation of people's aspirations."

Earlier in the day, an NDA delegation called on Murmu. While the BJP handed her a letter on Modi's election as the leader of the BJP Parliamentary Party, NDA leaders submitted their letters of support. The delegation included J P Nadda, Rajnath Singh, Amit Shah, Ashwini Vaishnaw and C N Manjunath (all BJP), TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu, JD(U)'s Nitish Kumar, Shiv Sena chief Eknath Shinde, JD(S) leader H D Kumaraswamy, LJP(Ram Vilas) leader Chirag Paswan.

> Narendra Modi, PM-designate

The day began with the NDA Parliamentary Party electing Modi as its leader. Nitish was seen trying to touch Modi's feet but the latter stopped him.

In his address, Modi spoke about the vital role of consensus in running the government. Having a "bahumat (majority)" is necessary to form government but "sarvmat (consensus or unanimity)" is much needed for running the country, he said.

"I want to assure people of the country that you have given us the good fortune to run the government by handing us a majority, and it has then become our responsibility that we continuously strive to ensure unanimity in taking the country forward," Modi said.

RBI keeps rates unchanged for eighth consecutive time

BENN KOCHUVEEDAN @ Mumbai

RESOLUTE inflation policing despite stronger growth indicators persuaded the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) of the Reserve Bank on Friday to stand pat on the rates front as well as the policy stance for the eighth time in a row.

Ever since the February 2023 review, the Reserve Bank's panel has left the repo rate — the benchmark rate below which a lender cannot extend loans and the rate at which banks borrow from the central bank — unchanged at 6.50%.

The policy boosted both the equity and money markets with indices closing at record highs while the rupee gained 14 paise against the greenback. However, fearing delayed rates cut, the bond yield remained above 7% to close at 7.016%.

Reserve Bank Governor Shaktikanta Das at a press meet in Mumbai | PTI

The decision to hold the rates was not unanimous, as two of the six members on the panel — Dr Ashima Goyal and Prof Jayanth R Varma — voted for a rate cut by 25 basis points and change in the policy stance.

Expecting the economy to fare better on the back of the unexpected jump in the growth numbers to 8.2% in the just concluded fiscal 2024, Reserve Bank governor Shaktikanta Das revised upwards the central bank's growth forecast by 20 basis points to 7.2% for the current fiscal. In the past two reviews, the GDP projection was maintained at 7%.

Underlining the MPC's resolve to fight inflation, which it fears may spike from the third quarter partly due to the low base effect and partly due to the still adamant food prices, the panel also decided to maintain the policy stance of withdrawal of accommodation to ensure that inflation progressively aligns to the target, while supporting growth.

On the rationale for raising the growth numbers, Das said high frequency indicators of domestic activity are showing resilience in FY25. And the Southwest monsoon is expected to be above normal. P13

Ballari MP-elect eyeing berth in Siddu cabinet?

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Ballari

BALLARI MP-elect E Tukaram is unlikely to resign as Sandur MLA and go to the Lok Sabha, according to sources.

This move is in view of B Nagendra quitting the Siddaramaiah cabinet over the alleged misappropriation of funds in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation Ltd., the sources said. After Tukaram's followers and supporters got an inkling of Nagendra's resignation a few days ago, they held a meeting and batted for their leader's induction into the cabinet, they said. In the just concluded LS polls, Tukaram trounced BJP's B Sriramulu in Ballari by a huge margin. Tukaram is now hoping for a ministerial berth, representing Ballari district, in the cabinet.

Odisha CM: Action shifts to Delhi

BIJOY PRADHAN @ Bhubaneswar

AS June 10 inches closer and preparations for the first BJP government's swearing-in get intense in Odisha, action shifted to Delhi on Friday. Sources said a number of MLAs have been summoned to the national capital where the Central leadership is likely to take the call on the new leader of the BJP legislature party.

Separate meetings of the MLAs and all the MPs of Odisha have reportedly been fixed with Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP national president JP Nadda on Saturday over the selection of chief minister of the BJP government which will take oath on June 10 as announced by Prime Minister-elect Narendra Modi.

All the newly-elected MPs from the state had left for Delhi on Thursday for the meeting of the NDA members held at the Central Hall of the old Parliament on the day. The BJP parliamentary board was scheduled to meet in the evening after the PM designate Modi and leaders of NDA partners met President Droupadi Murmu.

Apart from working out details of the council of ministers, sources said the BJP parliamentary board is likely to take a call on the new chief minister of Odisha.

The BJP state unit chief Manmohan Samal and Sambalpur MLA Jayanarayana Mishra, both members of the BJP parliamentary board, are already in the national capital.

LS POLL OUTCOME

RAHUL PULLS UP MINS FOR CONG'S DISMAL SHOW

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

SENIOR Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Friday expressed dissatisfaction over the party's "dismal" performance in the LS elections in Karnataka and sought a report from Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and DCM DK Shivakumar, according to sources.

Action against the ministers, who failed in ensuring the victory of the party candidates, is likely soon. Rahul also expressed his discontent over a dozen ministers' failure to ensure good leads for the party candidates in their respective assembly constituencies, the sources said.

Rahul interacted with the newly-elected party MPs and defeated candidates at the KPCC office. Later, he met the ministers and took those, who failed in ensuring the victory of the party candidates, to task.

A report on the party's defeat in Chitradurga, Kolar, Tumakuru and Bagalkot constituencies because of internal bickering was with Rahul. AICC general secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala had acted upon it, according to a source.

"Rahul discussed this with all ministers. The high command has sought a report on the election results. We will discuss with all our leaders and submit it," Shivakumar told reporters.

He said Rahul expected 5-6 seats more for the party in the state. He along with Siddaramaiah will take part in the Congress Working Committee (CWC) meeting in New Delhi on Saturday. After returning, they will prepare an action plan to resolve all issues within the party, he added.

LAND FOR JOBS

CBI files final chargesheet against Lalu and 77 others

MUKESH RANJAN @ New Delhi

THE Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on Friday filed its conclusive chargesheet in the alleged land-for-jobs scam involving Lalu Prasad Yadav.

The third and final chargesheet submitted by the probe agency before a special court in Delhi names 78 accused, including Lalu, his wife Rabri Devi, son Tej Pratap Yadav and daughter Hema Yadav.

It covers all railway zones where the recruitment was made allegedly in return for land taken by members of Lalu Prasad Yadav's family, a CBI official said.

"During the investigation, it has been found that the accused in conspiracy with the Railways officials and engaged persons as 'substitutes' in lieu of land either in their name or in the name of their close relatives. This land was acquired at prices lower than the prevailing circle rate and much lower than the market rate," a senior CBI official said.

The official added that no public notice or advertisement was issued for these appointments, yet candidates from Patna were employed in Mumbai, Jabalpur, Kolkata, Jaipur and Hajipur.

The CBI found Lalu Prasad, in furtherance of a criminal conspiracy along with officers of Railways, his family members and others, engaged candidates as Group D substitutes in 11 zones of Indian Railways in complete violation of the extant guidelines, the CBI spokesperson said.

Meanwhile, the central agency informed the court that prosecution sanction from competent authority was still awaited. The court cannot take cognizance of the case without such sanction. Officials said the court will take cognisance and hear the matter on July 6.

Earlier, on May 29, the court had directed the CBI to file its conclusive chargesheet at the earliest and expressed displeasure over the delay.

Besides Lalu and family, 29 Railways officials, 37 candidates and six other private persons have been named in the chargesheet, they said.

Bhavani gets bail, can't enter Hassan district

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

KEEPING in abeyance the non-bailable warrant (NBW) issued against Bhavani Revanna, mother of JDS leader Prajwal Revanna, in a kidnapping case, the High Court of Karnataka on Friday granted her interim anticipatory bail and directed her to appear before the SIT by 1 pm the same day.

After the court issued the order around 11 am, Bhavani rushed to the SIT office around 12:40 pm with her advocate Arun. To evade the media, she reportedly switched from her SUV to a hatchback, a few km from the SIT office. After four hours of questioning, she left the office around 5.10 pm.

Earlier, the high court directed Bhavani not to enter KR Nagar taluk in Mysuru district and Hassan district. Justice Krishna S Dixit passed the order granting her interim anticipatory bail by imposing stringent conditions.

34 monkeys sedated, beaten to death in Chikkamagaluru

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chikkamagaluru

IN a gruesome incident, 34 monkeys were sedated and beaten to death at Dyavana in NR Pura taluk on Friday.

They were reportedly fed bananas laced with a sedative.

People of Dyavana found the bodies of monkeys along the village main road. The bodies bore deep injury marks.

Residents of Malnad have a history of hiring monkey catchers to protect their crops such as coffee and banana from the primates. However, local officials termed this incident a deliberate act of cruelty. "It appears to be the work of some miscreants. The reason for killing the monkeys is yet to be ascertained," said officials who visited the spot.

Wildlife activists and animal lovers condemned the killing of monkeys and demanded that stern action be taken against those responsible for it. NR Pura police have launched a hunt for the miscreants.

Six try to sell IGP's office land, held

PRAVEEN KUMAR
@ Bengaluru

SIX people, who tried to sell the office premises of the Central Range Inspector General of Police (IGP) and the Bengaluru Rural Superintendent on Millers Road in the city by reportedly creating fake documents, have been arrested by High Grounds police.

The five-acre plot is now worth more than Rs 200 crore. The name of the building where the police department's offices are housed is 'Om Mahal'.

The arrested have been identified as MD Haneef of Vidyaranyapura, Rajashekar of Vijaynagar, Mohammad Nadeem of Ramasandra Main Road in Ullal, Mohan Shetty of Sanjaynagar and Zaheer Ahmed.

The incident happened on Monday between 1 pm and 1.30 pm. The accused allegedly trespassed into the plot and began clicking pictures and making videos.

Wireless inspector Santhosh Gowda, who is also the estate officer, observed their suspicious movements and questioned them. The accused warned the inspector that the owner of the plot gave them the General Power of Attorney (GPA) a few days ago and they have the right to sell it.

The inspector, after bringing the matter to his higher-ups, filed a complaint with High Grounds police.

It is said that the plot belonged to the royal family of Nepal. However, the ownership details are not clear. The police department's offices have been functioning from the plot since 1962.

"There is confusion over the ownership of the property. It is said that the premises belonged to a Nepali King. There have been several correspondences by the state government to register the property so that it can be developed," Mallikarjun Baladandi, Bengaluru Rural SP, told The New Indian Express.

BUS FARE HIKE ON CARDS, GOVT MAY ACCEPT PROPOSAL

Road transport corporations say no special grants from govt to buy buses, clear staff salaries after Shakti scheme rollout

AKNISREE KARTHIK @ Bengaluru

AS the price of diesel, spareparts and other components has risen as also the salaries of employees, the cost of operating road transport corporation (RTC) buses has shot up. This, amid the absence of any special grants from the state government after the rollout of the Shakti scheme, which allows women to travel free in state-run transport corporation buses. Now, the RTCs are getting ready to increase the ticket fares. The last time the ticket price was increased was in 2020. But a lot has changed since then. Take the example of diesel. It was Rs 61 per litre in 2020, but it has gone up to around Rs 90 now, nearly a 50 per cent increase.

An official from the bus corporation confirmed that they would send a proposal to seek an increase in ticket fares by 25-30 per cent. "We have been constantly urging the state government to increase the ticket fares. Over 45 per cent of our earnings go for diesel, whose price has gone up in the last four years. Earlier, we spent Rs 3 crore per day, but now we have to shell out over Rs 5 crore. How can we manage our financial resources," he asked.

"Like how highway tolls are increased annually by the National Highways Authority of India in line with the Wholesale Price Index (WPI), bus corporations too have a formula. If we consider the salaries that have gone up by 20 per cent, the diesel cost that has gone up by 46 per cent and the cost of spare parts and others, the ticket fare has to be hiked by nearly 40 per cent. But we are a public bus corporation and our priority is not to make profits, but to serve the people. We don't want to increase the ticket fares so high that it would buren the people," he added.

He was certain that the government would approve the proposal this year. "Every year in the budget, we used to get special grants to purchase new buses, clear salaries of employees, for buildings and others. But after the Shakti scheme, the government is not giving any grants and we have to run our corporations with only the revenue we generate," he added.

While the proposal for the hike would be 25-30 per cent, the government could accept an increase of 15-20 per cent, he admitted. Transport Minister Ramalinga Reddy confirmed that a fare hike is on the cards. "We are yet to receive the proposal from the bus corporations as all were held up with election duty. They will send it soon. The cost of fuel and spare parts has gone up. A nominal fare hike is inevitable," he added.

BBMP may seize, lock properties of tax defaulters

ENS @ Bengaluru

BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath on Friday said now that the election duty is over and all Palike employees are back at their respective departments, the focus will be on generating more taxes. He said the revenue officials have been directed to seize properties, especially commercial, of tax defaulters as some of them have not used the 'One Time Settlement' (OTS) scheme to clear the dues with interest.

Under the scheme, 50 per cent reduction on the interest on long-pending dues (five years) was offered. The revenue officials had issued notices to such defaulters and soon, major steps like sealing and seizing of properties will begin.

"50 per cent of interest was waived on tax dues. The scheme was introduced three months ago, but building owners with arrears have not used the opportunity. The corporation will seize and lock such buildings from Monday, to collect the outstanding tax," said a senior BBMP revenue official. The defaulters have not responded, though many notices were issued to them. The stern step of locking their property, especially the commercial ones, will be taken, he warned.

NEET-UG results whip up a storm, 67 score perfect 720

PURAN CHOUDHARY @ Bengaluru

THE National Testing Agency (NTA) that conducts NEET UG exams along with other entrance examinations for admission to higher education institutions, has found itself in a soup in the past two days.

Parents and students are demanding a retest of the medical entrance exam, while a group of people have questioned the sanctity of the autonomous testing organisation with 67 students securing 720/720 for the first time. In this commotion, experts weigh in on how feasible is a retest and what course correction NTA can do to restore the integrity of one the most important entrance testing agencies in the country.

Sacchidanand Sarvajnamurthy Aradhya, former vice-chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS) told TNIE that scoring 720 in NEET is a herculean task, and so many students securing full marks is a point of concern "which has never been heard of". He added that errors could have been made in how the results were declared. "The NTA needs to be cautious, maybe use technology tools not just for invigilation but also for result declaration so that ruptures in the system can be addressed," he said.

A retest for over 24 lakh students will be a difficult affair, and will also delay the academic calendar by two months and impact all stakeholders, apart from the cost factor. "We have about 89,000 students who have cleared the exam from Karnataka. General merit rank students who are expecting to get into AIIMS, Delhi, will now find it difficult. Also, we are not aware of how many have scored high ranks in the state and how this affects their admission to Bangalore Medical College. The NTA needs to bring more clarity on the controversy and address anxious parents and students," said Anant Kulkarni, CEO, BASE.

He added that the NTA needs to train teachers and invigilators. "So many students have complained of either receiving question papers late or centres collecting them early. They need to highlight the importance of exams, just like the Election Commission does with elections," he suggested. Experts also recommend that the agency should conduct the exam twice a year to reduce the burden, not only on students but also on officials. Students get to appear for the JEE twice, and there are options to apply for other engineering exams in states, but for a medical career, only NEET ranks are counted.

AIR INDIA TO FLY NON-STOP BETWEEN B'LURU, GATWICK

Air India will start non-stop flights between Bengaluru and London Gatwick, starting August 18, making the Karnataka capital the fifth Indian city to be connected to the UK's second-largest airport. The service, which will further strengthen Air India's presence in the UK, reinforce the strong economic and cultural ties between the two countries, the airline said in a release on Friday. Air India will operate 5x weekly between Bengaluru and Gatwick, thus taking the total count of its flights to and from the airport to 17x weekly. The airline will use its Boeing 787 Dreamliner on the route, featuring 18 flat beds in Business class and 238 spacious seats in Economy.

Normal water supply from today, says BWSSB

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE BWSSB, which had undertaken electrical wiring for 220 KV power supply pumping substation, has completed the work for pre-commissioning and commissioning of Cauvery-stage 5, which will supply 775 MLD water. The Cauvery-stage 5 will be commissioned in July.

According to officials, apart from electrical works carried out in power sub-stations, installation of bulk flow metre at Vajarahalli, Vasanthpura and Kothanur Dinne area, work to prevent leakage in large water pipes near Lakkasandra Metro station, connecting large pipes near Marathahalli Bridge near BMRCL was taken up on June 6 and 7. BWSSB had shut Cauvery Stage 1, 2 and 3 Water Supply Units for 12 hours, between 6 am to 6 pm, on June 6, and Cauvery Stage 4, 1 and 2 Water Supply Units on June 7, in connection with implementation of Cauvery Phase 5 Project. It decided to shut down for four hours between 10 am and 2 pm and requested the public to cooperate with the board and store the required water.

Now, after completion of works, the board officials claimed normal water supply will resume from Saturday onwards.

Bank of Baroda eyes greener tomorrow

Bengaluru: On the occasion of World Environment Day, Bank of Baroda conducted many initiatives to reaffirm its commitment to protecting Mother Earth. Its offices have adopted parks and gardens and undertaken 498 plantation programmes. An awareness drive focused on the recently-launched BOB Earth Green Term Deposit Scheme, outlining the benefits of the scheme for both depositors and the environment, was also held. BOB Earth Green Term Deposits offers interest rates of up to 7.15% p.a. While launching the plantation drive at Bank of Baroda's corporate office, MD & CEO Debadatta Chand said, "We are committed to taking tangible measures that will pave the way for a greener tomorrow."

RWF observes World Environment Day

Bengaluru: World Environment Day was celebrated at Rail Wheel Factory on June 6. Rail Wheel Factory General Manager R Rajagopal, who addressed the gathering, emphasised on going green in every aspect and the importance of 'reduce, reuse and recycle'. He emphasised on conscious use of natural resources and also to reduce the use of plastic. He said that "we have borrowed the Earth from our future generations, and hence, Mother Earth has to be protected and preserved". PR Sheshagiri Rao, founder of Krishi Hrudya, who was the Guest of Honour, enlightened the gathering on sustainable solutions for effective usage of groundwater. He also spoke about effective rainwater harvesting.

BIS officials raid toy manufacturing firm

Bengaluru: Officials of the Bengaluru branch office of the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) conducted a search and seizure operation at three premises of a toy manufacturer and seized around 35,000 toys and about six packages of polyester staple fibres, each weighing about 250 kg, on Thursday. "The firm has licence to manufacture and supply soft toys as per the Indian Standard IS 9873 Part I at only one premises, where the firm uses BIS Standards mark (ISI mark) on the toys. During the search operation, it was found that the firm was allegedly manufacturing and selling the product at three premises with ISI mark," an official release stated.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

08TH June: Pisces is my sign of the day. Pisceans are renowned for their sensitivity and creative flair. That's all good! The question astrologers raise, though, is how Piscean people actually use their skill. In fact, everyone has a bit of Pisces in them, which is why everybody has a little artistic skill and poetic flair.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You could well have to cope with unexpected financial demands, although if past circumstances now seem to be repeating themselves, life is due to be easier than last time. Though, when somebody close to you decides you're due for some criticism, you might have to bite your tongue.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The Moon's fresh celestial challenge indicates that you must accept help from wherever it comes. In fact, you should take good notice of everything that people say, improving your act for the future. If you're still uncertain about a few key decisions, give it a few days.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The emphasis is on work, so if you're at home there should be plenty to keep you busy. Even leisure activities should be just that - active. The best relationships are based on joint interests rather than raw passion, so you need to stay alert to a partner's needs.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
If it's love you're interested in, you may have to travel. The important thing is to talk about your feelings and make sure that others know how you feel about them. At home, you may follow the lead set by a child or younger relation. You never know - they might have the innocent, straightforward approach you're looking for.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
If other people are unable to reach agreement, there seems to be no point in arguing the toss. It's far better to realise that associates and loved ones must be allowed to go their own way. If they know what's good for them they'll come back to the negotiating table in good time.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You are probably well-prepared for anything which may come up, and in any case friends will come to your aid. Today's lunar alignments favour short journeys and serious discussions. You may also have to choose between one family engagement and another.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
All those current challenging celestial aspects will enable you to force intensely personal issues out into the open, and you may dig as far into the past as you wish. If you're working, by the way, your thoughts must focus on ways to make conditions more pleasant.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You can take the initiative today, putting your foot down at home and determining the pace in affairs of the heart. Financially, keep your outlay down to a reasonable level and you'll be happier in the long run. And be ready for long-distance news. It might be just what you need.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Your current emotional tactics have served you well in the past, but a new romantic campaign requires a more sensitive approach. Perfect old-fashioned manners and courtesy will assist your cause. Above all, you need to show that you care - and mean it!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Now's your chance to prove how well-informed and on-the-ball you are. When it comes to planning your family future, your ideas may be considerably less definite than other people's. And, if you're attributing blame or praise for the past, you should try to pick the right targets.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You may be too insecure or pre-occupied with important changes at work to bother with personal details. However, the best way to relax today could be with a spot of 'retail therapy', spending a little of your hard-earned cash on whatever you fancy!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You have every reason to have faith in the future, and make a bid for the moral high ground. Financial plans may have to be reconsidered, and you may now revive an old commitment, however, expensive. Just make sure that you don't get caught out again.

Yesterday's Jumbles: GUMBO FORUM HARBOR PUNDIT
Answer: The new chain of coffee shops was being built — FROM THE GROUND UP

The long-pending issue of division of Belagavi district has again gained traction with the end of Lok Sabha polls. On Friday, PWD Minister Satish Jarkiholi said the Belagavi district which was vast geographically should be divided into three districts. He said that he was strongly in favour of creation of three districts by dividing Belagavi for administrative convenience

HORROR IN HILLS

What was supposed to be a beautiful trek in the mighty mountains became a nightmare for 22 mountaineers from K'taka after the worst blizzard in 3 decades killed nine of them...

HIMALAYAN TRAGEDY TURNED LIVES UPSIDE DOWN

Family members of Asha Sudhakar, who died in Uttarakhand, during her cremation in Hebbal crematorium in Bengaluru on Friday | ALLEN EGENUSE J

A seasoned trekker, Asha died doing what she loved the most

RISHITA KHANNA @ Bengaluru

SEVENTY-one-year-old Asha Sudhakar, a mountaineer who had been trekking since she was 12, was among the nine people who died when their expedition to Sahastra Tal in Uttarakhand was hit by a blizzard on June 4. A retired senior bank manager, Asha, was one of Karnataka's most experienced mountaineers with about 59 years of trekking experience.

Asha's friend, Gayathri, told TNIE that the former always said she would keep trekking and climbing as long as she was physically fit. "We never imagined her life would end in the mountains that she dedicated so much of her time to," Asha said.

During a trekking excursion to Uttarkashi with a group of 22 members, including her husband, S Sudhakar, 71, Asha, a native of Thakkalai, a town located near Kanniyakumari in Tamil Nadu, succumbed to the harsh weather conditions. Her husband survived the ordeal.

One of her relatives said that Asha had been an avid trekker since the age of 12. "Every six months, Asha would eagerly inform us of her latest trekking destination. She had extensive knowledge about trekking and always enthusiastically inspired others to join her adventures," the relative added. Recalling Asha's deep passion for trekking, her colleague said, "Despite choosing many challenging trekking routes in the past, Asha was always confident in her ability to handle any situation. She knew how to manage and had backup plans ready."

However, no one can prepare for the unpredictability of nature, the colleague added.

Within moments, the weather turned severe, plunging everything into darkness. Visibility dropped to less than 50m, with heavy snowfall and rain which made conditions fatal for even professional trekkers, she said.

On Friday morning, Asha's body was brought to Bengaluru from Delhi and was shifted to her residence in Jakkur. She is survived by her husband and sons who live in the U.S.

Prasad had planned a trip to TN next

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

SOON after returning from the Sahastra Tal Mayali trek in Uttarakashi, he was planning a trip to Tamil Nadu. We used to follow each other's progress on a fitness app, said a colleague of Venkatesh Prasad (53), who succumbed to adverse weather while trekking back to the base camp on June 3.

Prasad was Director, Delivery Assurance, Impelsys, and had earlier worked with Wipro. He was a member of the Karnataka Mountaineering Association.

The bodies of Prasad and eight others were brought to Bengaluru from Delhi on different commercial flights on Friday morning. Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda and Karnataka Disaster Management department officials handed the bodies to their families. "Soon after news of his death broke out, there was gloom in the office. We didn't know how to break it to the family. He is survived by his son, daughter, wife and mother. His son is in Grade-10 and it is worrying all of us. We have decided to support the family in all ways we can," said his friend.

Another colleague, with teary eyes, couldn't stop re-reading the WhatsApp conversations he had last had with Prasad from Sahastra Tal. It read: "Looks like you are enjoying your break. Assam and northeast is one place in my to-do list."

Prasad's colleague Praveen recollected the last update on a health app: a walk of 3.38km in Sahastra Tal on Day 2, at an elevation of 492 metres. "While my target was 60km of cycling per month, his target was 100km of walking per month," he said. "He was an experienced trekker and had inspired most of us to take up outdoor activities. We all used to look forward to weekends and breaks, especially when it was with Prasad."

Trekker couple's death comes as shock to their ex-classmates

Sujatha V Mungarwadi and Vinayak Mungarwadi, the engineer couple who are among the nine trekkers who died at Sahasra Tal Mayali, hailed from Hubballi. They are alumni of B V Bhoomaraddi College of Engineering in Hubballi. Their death has come as a rude shock to the alumni association of their alma mater, as the two were founder members of Uttara Karnataka Sneha Koota (UKSL), the alumni association. The organisation, with over 1,000 members, remembered the contribution of the couple to the society in its condolence message and said, "May God give the family members the strength to bear the shock." Both Sujatha and Vinayak completed engineering from the institute in the early 1990s. "Sujatha was my classmate and Vinayak was our senior. Sujatha had an ever smiling face and was a down to earth person. The couple settled in Bengaluru after marriage. Both are founder members of UKSL," informed Suresh Patil, an alumnus of BVB College. He recalled various social works taken up by the UKSL under the leadership of the couple. Suman, wife of Suresh Patil, a close friend of Sujatha, said the couple had trekked many places and many times. However, they were not comfortable with Sahasratal trek. "Ten days earlier, Sujatha texted in our WhatsApp group saying this place is notorious and she was feeling jittery about it," Suman said. (Subhash Chandra NS @ Hubballi)

HC nod to BTC to amend plea to conduct races

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court allowed Bangalore Turf Club Limited (BTCL) to amend its petition to challenge the rejection of its application before the state government, seeking licence to conduct horse racing from June to August 2024. This apart, the court asked the state government to file objections to the amended petition filed by BTCL by June 12, the next date of hearing.

Justice S R Krishna Kumar passed the order after the state government informed that Bangalore Turf Club Limited's application was rejected, while hearing petitions filed by BTCL, Karnataka Racehorse Owners' Association and Karnataka Trainers' Association.

They have sought direction to the government to consider the applications filed by BTCL, seeking licence.

When its application was rejected, BTCL filed an interlocutory application seeking permission to amend the petition, which the court permitted.

The application filed by Bangalore Turf Club Limited under Rule 3 of the Mysore Race Course Licensing Rules, 1952, for seeking a licence to hold races from June to August 2024 for allegedly violating the condition of the licence, rules and statutes, and illegal betting, constituting criminal activity in the premises of BTC.

In the order of rejection, the state government recorded that it was found that there were serious violations of the conditions of the licence, applicable statutes, and rules. It is also seen that an investigation by CCB is still pending and investigation from the competent tax authority is necessary to quantify tax evasion as well as recovery of such evaded tax, along with applicable penalty, the state government stated in the order.

Teen boy, sister on bike come under wheels of water tanker

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 20-year-old woman and her brother died after they were run over by a water tanker near Doddanagamangala in Electronics City on Friday morning. The deceased are Madhumitha and her 18-year-old brother Ranjan, residents of Kempegowda Layout in Doddanagamangala. Ranjan was going to drop Madhumitha at her college as it was her first day. The driver of the tanker, who is alleged to have been driving in a rash and negligent manner, touched the two-wheeler's mirror. In the impact, Ranjan and Madhumitha lost balance and fell on the road, coming under the wheels of the tanker. The Electronics City traffic police have registered a case. Further investigations are on.

State's nod not required for CBI probe: DKS

We will cooperate, says DyCM; bats for Rahul as Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi interacts with newly-elected party MPs and defeated candidates at the KPCC office in Bengaluru on Friday. CM Siddaramaiah, Dy CM DK Shivakumar, and Congress General Secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala look on

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

HITTING out at the BJP for demanding a CBI probe into the alleged irregularities in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation Ltd, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar clarified on Friday that the Central agency can take up the investigation on its own.

Addressing the media in Bengaluru, Shivakumar said, "There is no question of us handing over the case to the CBI as the agency is allowed to conduct investigations even without the State Government's permission if there are any illegal activities in banks and financial institutions. We are ready to cooperate with them," he said, adding that the alleged corruption in the corporation would not have come out in the public if not for the suicide of its superintendent.

Chandrashekaran, a superintendent with the corporation, had ended his life in Shivamogga last month, and in the death note, he mentioned large-scale misuse of money in the corporation and held senior officials responsible for his death.

Meanwhile, Shivakumar congratulated the newly elected Congress MLCs from Teachers' and Graduates' constituencies.

The KPCC president also said that Congress leader Rahul Gandhi would become the Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha and the PM in the future. "Rahul Gandhi has won from both Wayanad and Raebareli. He will discuss with the people of both constituencies and decide which seat to retain," he said.

The DyCM maintained that the Congress only highlighted BJP leader Basanagouda Patil Yatnal's allegation that he was approached by some people, offering the CM's post, if he could pay Rs 2,500 crore, and ministerial berth if he could pay Rs 500 crore.

"According to media reports, we had given the previous government's rate card for the posts in the form of an advertisement. Rahul Gandhi has nothing to do with this case. However, we (Congress leaders) have been deliberately dragged into the case," he said.

Rahul visit aimed at covering up scam: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Opposition BJP leaders urged Congress leader Rahul Gandhi to seek Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's resignation over the alleged misappropriation of funds in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation Limited. The BJP accused Karnataka Medical Education Minister Dr Sharanprakash Patil of holding a meeting at his office allegedly to discuss about destroying evidence in the case.

"Officer of the corporation committed suicide owing to the scams involving your associates," the BJP stated hitting out at Rahul, who was in Bengaluru to appear before a city court in a defamation case.

Former DyCM and senior BJP leader Dr CN Ashwathnarayan asked if Rahul was holding meetings with his party leaders to cover up the case related to Rs 187 crore irregularities in the ST Corporation.

Ashwathnarayan said the corporation's Chief Accounts Officer Parashuram in his affidavit requested that the evidence related to the case be protected. "Soon after the issue came out, Parashuram was called for a meeting at Medical Education Minister Dr Sharanprakash Patil's office to discuss about destroying evidence," the BJP leader further alleged.

"The Chief Accounts Officer has requested that the CCTV camera footage at the minister's office, three months footage of the CCTV camera at the bank branch on MG Road in Bengaluru and WhatsApp call records be protected," he said.

"Will you seek the corporation chairman Basanagouda Daddal's resignation and get him arrested? Will you sack the Medical Education Minister and get him arrested?" the BJP leader questioned Rahul. The CM should take responsibility for the alleged misappropriation as many ministers seem to be involved in it, he said.

The BJP leader said corruption is rampant in the state and the government is looting money meant for the development of STs. He said the government failed to arrest B Nagendra, who resigned as the ST Welfare minister and the CBI probe will ensure that action will be taken against all those involved in it.

Raise issues related to K'taka: Rahul to MPs

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1: Shivakumar, however, clarified that the impact of five guarantees on the party's performance did not come up for discussion. Rahul asked the newly-elected MPs to raise issues related to Karnataka, especially the "step-motherly" treatment by the Centre, in the Lok Sabha. "Congress has improved its tally to 99 and with the support of an independent, the party MPs should make the most of it in the Parliament," Shivakumar said quoting Rahul. Home Minister Dr Parameshwara, a senior leader and party loyalist, despite being in Bengaluru did not attend the meeting. He must be upset over the party's defeat in his home district of Tumakuru. But there was no formal invitation to the ministers and this may be the reason for many of them not attending it, a Congress leader said.

RAHUL GRANTED BAIL BY SPL COURT IN DEFAMATION CASE

RAKSHITH GOWDA @ Bengaluru

CONGRESS leader Rahul Gandhi appeared before a court in Bengaluru on Friday in connection with the defamation case filed against him. The 42nd Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate (ACMM) Court granted him bail.

BJP General Secretary Keshav Prasad had filed a private complaint, accusing the Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC), Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy CM DK Shivakumar and Congress leader Rahul Gandhi for defaming the party through advertisements in newspapers on May 5, 2023, ahead of the state Assembly elections.

He had alleged that the accused had made baseless and false allegations against the then state BJP government of charging up to 40 percent commission from contractors.

Rahul had sought exemption from appearing in person twice citing various reasons. He did not appear on Saturday (June 1) because of a meeting of INDIA leaders, while Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar, who appeared before the court, were granted bail. As the court had issued summons against Rahul, asking him to appear on June 7, he appeared before KN Shivakumar, judge of Special Court to try cases against sitting and former MPs/MLAs.

Gandhi was accompanied by the CM, DCM, AICC General Secretary and state Congress in-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala, former MP DK Suresh and others. He arrived at the court hall at 10.50 am and the proceedings started at 11 am. Rahul's advocates immediately moved the bail petition and court granted him bail before adjourning the hearing till July 30.

The bail conditions included a personal bond of Rs 50,000 and a surety of the like sum, which was provided by DK Suresh.

Don't precipitate matter against Nadda, Malviya in video case: HC to police

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Friday directed the state police not to precipitate the matter concerning the case registered against BJP national president JP Nadda and BJP social media in-charge Amit Malviya. Congress had filed a complaint with the High Grounds police over the state BJP unit posting an animated video on its official X handle during the recent Lok Sabha elections.

JP Nadda

Amit Malviya

Justice Krishna S Dixit passed the interim order after hearing the petition filed by both Nadda and Malviya, questioning the legality of the registration of the case. Issuing a notice to the state police and emergent notice to the complainant, Congress leader Ramesh Babu, the court adjourned the hearing to June 13.

Nadda and Malviya contended that their role was not at all found in the alleged offence and they have been falsely implicated only on the ground that they are the national president and national social media in-charge of BJP.

They stated that the state police have registered one more FIR for the same cause of action at the Malleswaram police station which is not permissible in law. These are a counter to the defamation case filed by BJP against Congress leaders Rahul Gandhi, Siddaramaiah and DK Shivakumar over an advertisement in newspapers during the 2023 Assembly elections, they added.

In his complaint, Congress leader Ramesh Babu had alleged that BJP posted the video to create enmity between communities during elections, violating the Model Code of Conduct. In the video, the SC/ST community is shown to be kicked by a particular community, projecting the SC community in a derogatory manner, his complaint stated.

The High Grounds police had registered the case against Nadda and Malviya under Sections 125 of the Representation of People Act 1951 and 1988, and Section 505 (2) of IPC.

CM seeks probe into NEET 'irregularities'

ENS @ Bengaluru

CM Siddaramaiah demanded a probe into the alleged irregularities in conducting the NEET exams. In a statement issued on Friday, the CM said suspicion of massive irregularities in the NEET result is being expressed across the country.

Siddaramaiah stated that 67 candidates got 720 out of 720 marks in the NEET exam, which means they got 100% marks. But, a comparison of the number of toppers in the previous year, raises suspicions about this year's results, he said

The CM stated that one student in 2019, one in 2020, three in 2021, one in 2022, and two in 2023 have secured 100% marks, while this year, 67 students have emerged as toppers. "It seems impossible for so many people to score 100% in NEET because every wrong answer carries negative marks. Is it a coincidence or a new experiment? This should be clarified by the Modi government," the CM stated. Of the 67 NEET toppers, 44 are toppers based on 'grace marks', and toppers with serial numbers 62 to 69 appeared in the same exam centre in Faridabad, Haryana, he said. "So on what basis these grace marks are awarded?..." the CM said.

Tukaram may seek LS ticket to his daughter

IF the Congress high command meets his demand for the cabinet berth, he is likely to seek Ballari Member of Parliament ticket for his daughter Souparnika to contest the byelection, the sources said.

Tukaram was against contesting the LS polls. But Nagendra persuaded him to contest, promising that he would ensure his victory against Sriramulu. Tukaram is a four-time MLA and was minister in the Congress-JDS coalition government (2018-19).

However, Tukaram told TNIE that he has no such plans for now. "I want to continue as MP. I don't want to comment on rumours," he said.

A senior Congress leader said, "Tukaram is a senior MLA and former minister. During his tenure as minister and MLA, he contributed a lot for the development of Ballari district, especially Sandur. We have asked him to continue in state politics. If Tukaram resigns as MP, we will elect a Congress candidate from Ballari."

HDK reaches Delhi, family to join him

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

FORMER CM and Mandya MP HD Kumaraswamy reached New Delhi on Friday evening, on his second visit to the capital within a week. He is expected to remain there for the next few days as the NDA leadership prepares for the swearing-in of the new government.

Kumaraswamy participated in the NDA meeting in Central Hall on Thursday. He was joined by JDS leaders Sa Ra Mahesh and other JDS members.

JDS leaders said he should be given a prominent ministry for his role in helping the BJP win almost nine to ten seats in Karnataka. Kumaraswamy's family -- former PM and father HD Deve Gowda, wife Anita, son Nikhil, daughter-in-law Revathi and grandson -- is expected to join him in New Delhi.

"The BJP-JDS alliance worked well in southern areas because JDS votes were transferred effortlessly to the BJP. The proof is BJP winning Chikkaballapur, Tumakuru, Bangalore Rural, Bangalore North, Mysuru, Chitradurga, Shivamogga and Udupi-Chikmagalur effortlessly, which is an indication that vote transfer has worked. Otherwise, how could the BJP, which won only seven seats in North Karnataka, win so many in South Karnataka?" analysts said.

The BJP-JDS winning leads show that JDS vote transfer took place convincingly. While most Congress leaders won by small margins, many BJP-JDS leaders won with margins of 2 to 3 lakh votes. In Bangalore Rural, Dr CN Manjunath won by 2.69 lakh votes, in Chikkaballapur, Dr K Sudhakar's victory margin was 1.63 lakh, Shobha Karandlaje won Bangalore North with 2.59 lakh margin, BY Raghavendra won Shivamogga by 2.4 lakh votes, and Yaduveer Wadiyar won Mysore-Kodagu by 1.39 lakh votes.

Two former CMs, Jagadish Shettar and Basavaraj Bommai, and the party's blue-eyed boy Pralhad Joshi could also make it to Modi 3.0 ministry.

Asked if Kumaraswamy would lobby for any particular ministry, JDS leaders said, "He would never do that. He trusts the NDA leadership and everyone knows the efforts JDS workers have put in across the state to help the BJP win."

Cong, NDA settle for 3 seats each

COUNCIL ELECTIONS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE counting for the six biennial MLC polls was over on Friday, and Congress and BJP-JDS alliance won three seats each. While Congress candidates won from the South East Teachers', Bangalore Graduates' and North East Graduates' constituencies, NDA candidates won from South Teachers', South West Teachers' and South West Graduates' constituencies. The polls were held on June 3.

BJP's A Devegowda lost the Bangalore Graduate constituency which the saffron party held for many years. Congress' Ramoji Gowda defeated him by over 11,000 votes. Similarly, in the South East Teachers Constituency, BJP's YA Narayanaswamy lost to Congress' DT Srinivas by 767 votes. This constituency too had been represented by BJP for a long time.

Chandrashekar Patil of Congress won from the North East Graduates' constituency by 4,671 votes. BJP's Dhananjay Sarji won South West Graduates' constituency by 6,936 votes. The results of South Teacher's and South West Teachers' constituencies were announced on Thursday. Congress candidates lost in the South Teachers' and South-West Teachers' constituencies. Alliance candidates K Vivekananda and SL Bhoje Gowda won the election in the first round of preferential votes. The votes were counted over two days.

This year, three graduates' constituencies put together had 3.63 lakh voters and three teachers' constituencies, 70,260 voters, while 78 candidates were in the fray.

With this, Congress will have 29 MLCs in the 75-member Upper House. Of the six seats for which the polls were held on Monday, Congress holds one seat and the remaining five are represented by BJP and JDS. Congress which was hoping to win all the six seats had to settle for three and the alliance partners, who had five seats, lost two to Congress candidates.

MAKING HISTORY

Gunda Jois remembered for making world know about Keladi dynasty

RAMACHANDRA V GUNARI
@ Shivamogga

A renowned historian and epigraphist Keladi Gunda Jois passed away on June 2. He was 94.

The fraternity of ancient history and epigraphy in the state said, "We have lost a legacy of a scholarly research cum resource person who informed the world about the tiny dynasty of Keladi of Shivamogga district."

Gunda Jois of Sagar taluk, popularly known as "Keladi Gunda Jois", earned the prefix Keladi for his dedicated research and study of the dynasty.

His passion for the dynasty's history made him set up an exclusive museum at Keladi village of Sagar taluk in 1960. For those visiting the Sri Keladi Rameshwara temple, a peep into the museum is a must.

Keladi Gunda Jois

Gunda Jois collected historical manuscripts, sculptures, paintings, coins, arms and ammunition, copper plaques, and documents of the dynasty and displayed them at the museum. Most of these were found by him in the Malnad region.

Interestingly, he joined an MA course in Ancient History and Epigraphy when he was over 50 years old. He translated the work 'Nrupa Vijaya' in Halagannada (old Kannada) to Hosagannada (New Kannada) and helped historians understand the history of Keladi dynasty.

"Jois was an authority on 'Modi lipi' and Tigalari dialect of Havyaka Brahmins of Malnad region. He taught many of his students to study it and helped carry forward the knowledge," said Dr SG Samak, a research student of Jois.

Also an Indologist, Jois learnt how to read palm leaf inscriptions that was in Modi dialect.

Gunda Jois' son Dr Venkatesh Jois, Dr G V Kallapur and others are carrying forward his work.

Gunda Jois had been presented with Rajyotsava and other awards. He has written 30 historical books.

The Keladi dynasty came into existence at the end of 1499. Keladi Nayakas, who were once part of Vijayanagara empire, ruled Ikkeri and Keladi, and picked, Keladi, a small town, as their capital. Their rise started with the decline of Vijayanagara empire, whose preeminence began to erode after their loss at the Battle of Talikota in 1565.

Keladi rulers fought against the Mughal army, which had set out to capture Raja Ram -- son of the Chhatrapati Shivaji, who had taken shelter at Keladi. The dynasty was in power from 1499 to 1763.

DEBATE AFTER DEBACLE

TN BJP leaders put Annamalai on mat for loss

T MURUGANANDHAM @Chennai

AFTER the BJP drew a blank in the Lok Sabha elections in Tamil Nadu and at least 10 of its candidates came second, the internal rumblings in the party seem to have boiled over. Several leaders have started openly questioning the election strategy adopted by BJP state president K Annamalai and blamed him for promoting a coterie. "Any man with little moral left in him will resign or at least make a drama that he is resigning. I know Annamalai lacks morals," said state BJP's intellectual cell leader Kalyaan Raman.

On Thursday, after warning BJP's social media activists of stringent action if they write anything wrong about party leaders, Tamilisai Soundararajan, former president of the state unit, lamented how a lack of strategy has put paid to the party's chance of winning seats. "Had we devised a strategy, we would have won this election. We (the candidates for LS polls) may not have ended as runners-up. We devised strategy (in the past). But Annamalai did not want that. Us emerging as runners-up won't help because only by winning we can serve people better," she said.

She also backed the view of former AIADMK minister S P Velumani who had said that if the alliance between the AIADMK and BJP remained intact, around 30 seats could have been won in the election. Vinoj P Selvam, state general secretary and BJP candidate for Chennai Central constituency who came second in the seat, also said that had the AIADMK and BJP contested together, the alliance would have won many seats.

TDP may get 4 ministerial berths

Vijayawada: The BJP is learnt to have offered two Ministerial berths for the TDP. With the BJP offering Civil Aviation Ministry, Naidu sought either Rural or Urban Development Ministry. Nadda assured to look into the issue during allocation of portfolios. TDP is anticipated to get at least four Ministerial berths in the Union Cabinet and the talks were held.

Modi: Odisha to be growth engine of Viksit Bharat

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhubaneswar

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi invoked Lord Jagannath during the NDA meet on Friday and exuded confidence that Odisha will be one of the growth engines of India's 'Vikash Yatra' for next 25 years. After the NDA partners re-elected Modi as their leader at the Central Hall of the Samvidhan Sadan of the Parliament building, he congratulated the newly elected representatives and workers who toiled hard amid the hot and humid conditions to script a new history in the recently concluded 2024 elections.

The BJP swept the polls in Odisha by winning 20 out of 21 LS seats and pocketed 78 seats in the 147-member legislative Assembly to form the next government in the state.

Lauding the stupendous performance of the saffron party in the recently concluded elections, the Prime Minister recounted the struggle and hard work of every party leader.

"There are different forms of God. I always believe and have experienced that Lord Jagannath is the God of the poor. Revolutionary results have come from Odisha. I am sure, the dream of Viksit Bharat will be fulfilled soon with the blessing of Lord Jagannath and Odisha will be one of the growth engines of the Vikash Yatra for next 25 years," Modi said.

Pinarayi hits back at priest for criticising LDF post poll loss

T'puram: Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan on Friday hit back at a priest who criticised the ruling Left on Facebook for their defeat in the LS polls, saying that such remarks show that there can be 'ignorant persons' even among priests. The priest, Geevarghese Coorilos -- former Metropolitan of Niranam Diocese of the Malankara Jacobite Syriac Orthodox Church -- in his post had said, "Floods and epidemics do not always come to the rescue and people in Kerala will not fall more than once in 'kit politics." After the Left government retained power in 2021, the opposition had alleged that it was due to the distribution of free food kits to the people during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Interrogate those accused of video leak: Revanna's advocate to SIT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hassan

ADVOCATE of Holenarasipur MLA HD Revanna, Gopal urged the Special Investigation Team [SIT] to arrest and interrogate Kartik Gowda, Puttaraj and Shrath Gowda who had allegedly circulated the pen drive of former Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna's alleged sex scandal. Speaking to reporters in Hassan, Gopal said that the SIT has failed to arrest the trio despite the court having rejected their bail recently.

The local police are also mum even as the trio took part in the victory celebration of Shreyas Patel, after he won the Hassan MP Seat recently. Gopal also has threatened to take up the matter in the court if the SIT failed to arrest them at the earliest.

He said, circulation of obscene videos is also similar to sexual abuse. The SIT arrested HD Revanna immediately after the court rejected the bail, however, the same was not hte case with the trio accused of circulating the video, in the case. He further said that the SIT allegedly discriminated against HD Revanna and Bhavani Revanna case.

SIT should not keep Bhavani after 5pm: HC

HER counsel Sandesh Chouta promised that Bhavani will cooperate with SIT officers. While granting interim anticipatory bail, the court directed Bhavani to appear before the SIT whenever summoned. However, the SIT should not keep her after 5 pm.

Special public prosecutor Ravivarma Kumar opposed interim bail to Bhavani contending that she did not appear before the SIT despite its notices.

The petitioner is the mastermind of the crime and she is likely to threaten witnesses and destroy evidence if the court grants her bail, he said.

After hearing the arguments, the court observed that no prejudice would be caused to anyone if interim anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner subject to stringent conditions. It adjourned the case to June 14.

The high court issued a notice to the SIT and an emergent notice to the complainant on a petition filed by former minister and MLA HD Revanna questioning the case registered against him at Holenarasipura Town police station in connection with the alleged sexual assault cases involving his son.

Karnataka bans screening of Hamare Barah for 2 weeks

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government has prohibited the release of the controversial movie 'Hamare Baarah' for two weeks. The order issued by the government says it is prohibited to exhibit the movie and its trailer in cinema theatres, on social media or television channels.

The decision was taken to prevent communal tension, as screening of the film could cause hatred between two religious communities.

The movie could also hurt the sentiments of people, especially women, the order said. As per the Karnataka Cinema (Regulation) Act, screening of the trailer and film is prohibited for the next two weeks or till the next order.

BJP members slammed the State government for prohibiting screening of the film.

Leader of Opposition R Ashoka said the ban on this movie is yet another brazen attempt to muzzle freedom of speech and expression in the state. "Who is CM Siddaramaiah and Congress trying to please with this ban?

There is no threat to law and order in Karnataka because of this movie, which is being screened across the country. Instead of protecting civil liberties and freedom of expression, the CM has yet again chosen to stand with radical elements," he said.

TAMIL NADU POLITY IS BECOMING A FOUR-CORNERED RING

TAMIL Nadu has continued to be one of the most fertile grounds for the INDIA bloc. It scored a perfect 40 out of 40, with DMK pulling out a stellar performance. Numerous roadshows by Narendra Modi and Amit Shah to garner support for NDA could not halt the DMK march. Though the lotus failed to bloom in the state, the BJP can take heart in the fact that its vote share almost doubled to 11.26 percent. On the other side, AIADMK, the state's principal opposition, slipped once again—the fourth time in a row—drawing a blank. It lost security deposits in seven of the 34 constituencies it contested, the worst Lok Sabha outing for the party since its inception in 1972. Its vote share dipped to 20.44 percent. Without making much noise, Naam Tamilar Katchi (NTK), a Tamil nationalist party fighting all alone, doubled its vote share to 8.15 percent and established itself as a formidable player.

The flop show by BJP and AIADMK has fuelled murmurs in favour of a rapprochement between the two former partners, though their top leaders have rejected any such possibility. BJP state chief K Annamalai questioned the proposition, saying his party faced an unprecedented rout in 2019 despite the alliance. The AIADMK, too, reiterated there is no change in its stand on keeping the BJP away. Annamalai does not seem to be a big fan of his party's proven strategy of hitching a ride with an established local party until it is time to fly on its own. The AIADMK is worried about the minority vote bank shifting to its Dravidian rival if it opts to ally with the saffron party. The AIADMK may have managed to hold on to its core vote bank despite a delayed campaign and not-so-popular candidates, but it has reasons to worry about the leak in anti-incumbency votes in favour of the BJP and NTK.

The DMK, led by M K Stalin, an anchor for the INDIA bloc, has continued its march with several social welfare measures winning hearts. The party also seems to have gained from the division of opposition votes. With the AIADMK and BJP, with their alliance partners in tow, and NTK promising a hard-fought, four-cornered contest in the future, elections in Tamil Nadu are likely to become more exciting.

GROWTH RATE REVISION COMES WITH RAIN RIDER

THE RBI has kept the policy repo rate unchanged at 6.5 percent for the eighth consecutive time. In a 4-2 vote, the central bank's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) decided to remain focused on the withdrawal of accommodation to ensure inflation progressively aligned with the target. There are clear signs of a divided MPC, with two members voting for a softening of stance as well as policy direction, as against only one dissenting member in past policy reviews. The MPC's cautious view to maintain status quo also comes when advanced nations' central banks, including the European Central Bank, have begun rate cuts. But putting speculation to rest, RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das has emphatically reiterated that India's monetary policy will be solely driven by domestic growth-inflation dynamics and not by the policies of advanced economies.

Citing resilience in domestic economic activity, the RBI revised its 2024-25 GDP forecast upwards by 0.20 percentage points to 7.2 percent, while the retail inflation estimate was kept unchanged at 4.5 percent. If the RBI's growth projections materalise, it will be the fourth successive year of 7-plus percent growth. According to Das, multiple indicators such as core industries' growth, services sector buoyancy, and manufacturing are exhibiting strength, while revival in rural demand is showing promise. The central bank hopes the forecast of an above-normal monsoon will boost kharif production, and subsequently increase farm sector activity to strengthen rural demand. Seen another way, should monsoon play havoc, rural spending, which has been a drag on overall private consumption, may remain weak and dent the 2024-25 growth rate.

Although the headline inflation has moderated, upside risks persist—particularly in food inflation, which stood at 8.7 percent in April. Food continues to drive up the inflation gauge. Given pulses and vegetables are still rising in double-digits, household budgets are under severe pressure. Though the RBI expects Q2 inflation at 3.8 percent, the decline will be short-lived with inflation likely shooting past 4 percent in Q3 and Q4. Analysts expect monetary easing in the coming quarters, supporting lower interest rates and credit demand, which can further fuel economic growth. But rate cuts will likely begin only in late 2024 or even early 2025. Uncertainty over global oil prices, continuing geopolitical conflicts, supply disruptions and commodity price volatility could make the last mile of disinflation protracted and arduous. The RBI must remain watchful.

QUICK TAKE

REVOLUTIONISE WASTE MANAGEMENT

SCIENTISTS have been excited ever since Japanese researchers spotted bacteria that could 'eat' plastic. Microbiologist Kohei Oda's accidental 2001 discovery in a rubbish dump near Kyoto took another 15 years to mature. The field exploded in 2016 when the Japanese team published a paper on the enzyme the bacteria uses to metabolise PET, the plastic used to make drink bottles, food trays and textiles. Recently, a French biotech startup said it's on the verge of commercialising the idea by building bacteria farms. This can revolutionise plastic waste management. Like we saw with Covid vaccines, this is an idea that needs multilateral intervention for wide dissemination at minimal cost.

The state's three parties have the same tally in 2024 as a decade ago. But that's where the similarities end. A united Congress took on a fractious BJP this time

WHY CHANGES IN KARNATAKA LED BACK TO 2014 TALLY

SANDEEP SHASTRI

Political scientist, National Coordinator of the Lokniti Network, and Director (academics) at the NITTE Education Trust

KARNATAKA was seen as one of the swing states in the Lok Sabha polls. Both the BJP and the Congress had invested a lot of time and effort to swing the state in their favour. The BJP even entered into an alliance with the JDS to ensure that the anti-Congress vote was not split. As the results came trickling in, it was clear that the Karnataka voter had ensured political takeaways for both the BJP-led alliance as well as the Congress. Neither could claim unequivocal support of the voter in the state.

It is interesting that the seat share of the three major players returned exactly to what they were in 2014. Then, too, the BJP had won 17 seats with the Congress securing nine and the JDS holding on to two. However, the similarity between 2014 and 2024 ends there. Much water has flown below the political bridge in the last decade. The impact of the BJP-JDS alliance, their campaign revolving around the charisma of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the factionalism in the state unit of the BJP, the projection and visibility of implementation of the state government's guarantees, and of course the Prajwal Revanna embarrassment—all seem to have played a role in the results.

Save for the 2019 verdict, the scope of BJP victories over the last two decades has been in the 17 to 19 range. Similarly, save in 2019, the scope of Congress victories have been in the range of six to nine seats. The JDS has won seats in the range of two to three seats, as it has done this time too. The BJP victory has been at the lower end of the range and the Congress at the higher end.

The election in Karnataka was held in two phases, with 14 seats going to the polls in each phase. The first phase involved seats in the Old Mysore region, while the second phase covered Northern Karnataka. The first phase involved the traditional strongholds of the Congress and JDS, while the second phase covered the traditional strongholds of the BJP. Interestingly, the BJP-led alliance did well in the first phase—the BJP winning 10 seats, and the JDS and the Congress two each. On the other hand, the 14 seats in the second phase were evenly divided between the Congress and the BJP.

One notices a play of political musical chairs with the parties rotating the seats they won in 2019. The JDS lost the seat it previously had—Hassan—but wrested two seats, one from an independent and another that was held by the BJP but was transferred to it as part of the seat-sharing arrangement. The Congress lost the one seat it had won the last time—Bangalore Rural—but wrested one seat from the JDS and eight from the BJP. The BJP retained 16 of its seats and wrested one from the Congress while conceding nine to its opponents. It is also important to record that in 11 of the 17 victories of the BJP, the party had changed its candidates. All the nine new Congress MPs and a new JDS MP are entering the Lok Sabha for the first time. Thus, three-fourths—21 of 28—of the Karnataka MPs have been elected from constituencies that they won for the first time. They include three former chief ministers, three former Union ministers and a former speaker of the state assembly.

SOURAV ROY

What were the factors that helped the BJP claim a majority of the seats, even though it saw a loss of one-third of its seats? Three factors worked in its favour. The fact that over the last three elections, the voter in the state has distinguished between assembly and Lok Sabha elections, and in the span of a year voted for one party in the assembly polls and another for the Lok Sabha is clear.

The Modi factor seems to have been critical in ensuring the BJP victory. All the NDA candidates sought votes in the prime minister's name and saw themselves as proxies for one more term of Modi as prime minister. Thirdly, the social coalitions that the NDA alliance was able to stitch together worked to their advantage. This also explains the wider victory margins of the NDA candidates.

Three different sets of factors helped the Congress recover from its 2019 performance. The guarantees that the state government implemented found some traction with voters. Secondly, the Congress benefitted from the lack of unity in the state BJP unit, which was visible. This was especially true in the second round of polling where, in the BJP strongholds, the Congress forced an equal division of seats. A supplementary factor in the second phase was the embarrassment the BJP candidates faced due to the Prajwal Revanna controversy. A deeper study of the Lokniti-CSDS data will indicate the way in which the women's vote swung in Karnataka. Finally, the Congress entered this election with greater unity and a sense of desperation. A wipe-out would have led to very difficult times for the state government. The nine seats were veritably like a face-saver.

As one moves forward, the Congress would want to ensure greater stability in the ruling party and its government. Talk of a leadership change seems to be on the back-burner. Any talk of ministry reshuffle had been postponed till the Lok Sabha polls. The topic cannot be postponed anymore and the discontent among ruling party legislators would have to be addressed. The BJP still faces factionalism and, with the party having to run a coalition government at the Centre, there would be less focus on the state units. The state leadership of the party would need to be proactive in its role as an opposition and in preparation for 2028. The JDS would hope for a role in the central government. This expectation is dampened by some extent on account of the embarrassment the party faces on the Prajwal Revanna issue.

The political battle lines in the state are clearly drawn and the players wait for an appropriate moment to carry forward the confrontation. The fireworks may start sooner rather than later.

THE FAST-CHANGING GLOBAL STANCE ON PALESTINIAN STATE

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

ON a single day, Spain, Norway and Ireland joined 143 of the 193 member-states of the United Nations in recognising a Palestinian state. Spain has said its recognition applies to a unified Palestinian state that includes the Gaza Strip and West Bank under the Palestinian Authority, with East Jerusalem as the capital. Slovenia, Malta and Belgium are expected to follow soon.

There are differences in the conditions of recognition, of course. Norway has decided to plant a full-blown embassy in Occupied Palestine, joining only five other countries to have done so. Most of the other Palestine-supportive nations are asking for a vaguely-defined two-state solution, with Spain asking for a pre-1967 border for Palestine with the capital in East Jerusalem. No country, however, has opted for a one-state solution in which 5.3 million Palestinians and 9.1 million Israelis would agree to live in a society where they both have equal rights.

The current melee seems to have cloaked the emergence of a divisive new geopolitical alignment within the US-led 'Coalition of Common Challenges' centred on Israel-Gaza and Russia-Ukraine. Fifteen of the 32 nations in the US-led NATO have already recognised or are on the brink of recognising the Palestinian state. All the 27 European Union member-states are players in the international sanctions imposed against Russia after its war on Ukraine in February 2022. Türkiye is the only NATO member not on this list. And therein lies a tale: that of countries that are generally within the US's vast and heavy-handed sphere of influence who are charting their own foreign-policy ways—even at the cost of riling the US.

The possibility of their being concerned with the pecuniary downside of being attached to the US by the hip is high. The sanctions against Russia are malfunctioning. Russia remains a healthy economy, in spite of the fact that the combined GDP of NATO member states is about $51 trillion, over 20 times Russia's GDP, and NATO member-states spent $1.3 trillion on defence in 2023, 10 times what Russia spent. Despite the fluctuations in its costly war with Ukraine, the country's GDP grew by 2.8 percent in 2024, despite, as NATO grieved, "Western sanctions intended to impede Moscow's war effort". Meanwhile, the Gaza war has kneecapped Israel. According to the IMF, Israel's real GDP growth this fiscal will be 1.6 percent, less than half the estimate of 3.3 percent and down from 2.9 percent in 2023. With a further slide envisaged ahead, it is imprudent for stable economies to be roped to a ship with a big hole in its hull, even if that ship is bolstered by a far huger ship bristling with enough treasure to stave off a meltdown.

AFP

> Fifteen of the 32 nations in the US-led NATO have recognised or are on the brink of recognising a Palestinian state. Many nations within the US's broad sphere of influence are charting their own foreign policies, even at the cost of riling Washington

In addition to this, there also appear to be incorporeal elements at play in this new directionalism—a theory of political flexibility and adaptability to emergent conditions—away from US geopolitical centripetality and what is called destinationism, an idée fixe about an ideal condition. And these elements include statal appropriateness. The growing global stance against Israel has to do with political morality—an overstretched idea, given the corruptness of politics in general, but gaining surprising currency—while the limited opposition to Russia is predicated on pure geopolitics. In short, an eclectic collection of countries around the world is seeing Russia as a nation they can do a moral-economic business with but Israel as too feral to be in the comity of nations.

This nova geopolitica is being resisted by the US's staunch allies (and colonial states), but with increasing reluctance. Britain has confessed that it is considering recognition of a Palestinian state, but France has said while the subject is not "taboo", it is not the time yet, while Germany is standing firm against the idea.

But consider this: many of the countries that still stand in alignment with the US's unflinching backing of Israel in its madness in Gaza have expressed their favour of the international rule of law implicit in the International Criminal Court's warrant of arrest against Benjamin Netanyahu. These countries include Germany, France, Switzerland, Denmark, Spain, France, Ireland, Norway, Australia, Canada, Chile, Belgium, Slovenia, South Africa, Colombia, the Maldives, Oman and Jordan. They have all stated they would be obligated to arrest Netanyahu were he to appear in their territories.

Japan, which never bucks the US in the comity of nations, said that it fully supports the ICC. Its foreign minister told his Israeli counterpart that the ICC order is legally binding and Japan calls for an immediate ceasefire. One might be inclined to disdain this as inconsequential. After all, how likely is Netanyahu to want to cross these unwelcoming thresholds? The fact is, the man loves visiting Europe. He has done so at least 55 times in his more than 100 overseas visits since 2009. So this is, without a smidgen of a doubt, going to hurt. It will almost entirely obstruct him from his ability to schmooze with leaders he considers of maximum importance to his chokehold on Israel.

Meanwhile, aside from cranking out its usual—and, by now, disregarded and disesteemed—naysaying on the matter of holding Israel imputable, the US is playing softball, especially with European breakaways from its line. It is ignoring or floundering in the face of the fact that this newfangled exercise of pragmatic latitudinarianism indicates the future of geopolitics.

Reservation hold-up

Prioritise census

The 84th amendment of the Constitution in 2002 was specifically made so as not to have delimitation of constituencies till the first census conducted after 2026. If the new government is keen on implementing delimitation, the postponed 2021 census must be organised on a priority basis.

Election costs

Rahul Gandhi won at both Wayanad in Kerala and Rae Bareli in UP. Now it seems he is going to retain only Rae Bareli. There would certainly be a by-election to Wayanad soon. Conducting another election at Wayanad will cost a lot, which is unfair to innocent taxpayers. If a leader contests from two constituencies and wins in both places, the cost of conducting another election in one constituency should be collected from their party.

NDA an organic alliance committed to 'nation first', says Modi

Calling NDA synonymous with development, PM-elect flags the ruling combine's commitment to constitutional principle of interfaith harmony & mutual trust

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

BJP president JP Nadda welcomes Narendra Modi during the NDA parliamentary party meeting in New Delhi on Friday | PTI

CHOSEN by the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance as its leader to become prime minister for the third time, Narendra Modi on Friday said he would strive to ensure unanimity in running the next government and asserted that the NDA is not a combine of some parties to get power but an "organic alliance" committed to the principle of "nation first".

Modi said the ruling combine is committed to the constitutional principle of "sarva panth sambhava (interfaith harmony)" and mutual trust was at the core of this bloc.

"The NDA is not a congregation of parties only to get power. It is a commitment that is truly and fully committed to the principle of 'nation first', and we have proved it. We will continue proving it true to its essence," he said, addressing the NDA's newly elected MPs and party leaders.

Promising the allies to discharge his duty as PM again as his life's mission, Modi said, "This (NDA) is the most successful alliance in the history of our country. It has completed three successful terms in the past and is entering its fourth."

Defining the NDA in a new way, the PM-designate said that the NDA stands for 'New India', 'Developed India' and 'Aspirational India'.

Modi accused the Opposition of trying to undermine people's trust in democracy. "The leaders of Opposition still live with the mentality of old century and cast doubt on the country's democracy and about Electronic Voting Machines," he said, emphasising that the LS poll results are an endorsement of his government's agenda.

Modi said the NDA has got massive support in south India, adding that the BJP is forming its first government in Odisha. Ridiculing the Opposition's failure to gain significant seats, he said that his party and NDA have got more seats in this election than the total seats the Congress got in 2014, 2019 and 2024. "Congress, even after 10 years, could not be able to touch the mark of 100 seats in the 2024 LS elections."

Calling the election results as a resounding victory for the NDA, Modi said the NDA has a roadmap of next 10 years and will script a new chapter of development. "We will script a new chapter of development in next 10 years under the NDA government. We will script a new chapter in good governance and all fields including in the empowerment of nari shakti and reducing the government inference in the lives of middle class people through technological advancements," he said. "NDA government, in its third term, will script a new chapter in participation of people and collectively translate the dream of Viksit Bharat."

He also slammed the Opposition for going to the court to discredit the election process and accused them of obstructing the Election Commission's work. He said Opposition is stuck in the past and is resisting progress and technology.

"NDA is now synonymous with development while Opposition is synonymous with destruction and obstruction," he said. NDA leaders including N Chandrababu Naidu (TDP), Nitish Kumar (JDU), Eknath Shinde (Shiv Sena), Chirag Paswan (LJP-RV), HD Kumaraswamy (JDS), Ajit Pawar (NCP), Anupriya Patel (Apna Dal-S), and Pawan Kalyan (Jana Sena) declared support to Modi for heading the NDA government.

Before concluding his speech, Modi said the 10 years of NDA government were just a trailer, much more are coming up for the nation. "We will work much harder and faster for the development of our country. People know that we will deliver. We will take decisions best suited for nation," he asserted.

Flutter as 'kingmaker' CM tries to touch Modi's feet

RAMA SHANKAR @ Patna

BIHAR Chief Minister Nitish Kumar, who was being projected as a 'kingmaker' after the BJP could not cross the halfway mark in the just concluded Lok Sabha election, surprised all those present in the Parliament's Central Hall on Friday when he tried to touch Prime Minister-elect Narendra Modi's feet.

In a video that has gone viral on social media, Nitish can be seen walking towards Modi with folded hands and bowing to touch his feet. Modi, however, quickly stopped him from doing so and the two leaders proceeded to shake hands with each other.

This was not the first time the JD(U) president had done so. He had briefly touched the feet of Modi at an election rally in Nawada in April this year.

All NDA leaders assembled at the Central Hall on Friday unanimously passed a resolution, electing Modi as their leader.

Hours before Nitish tried to touch the feet of Modi, with whom he had an on-and-off relationship, a supporter erected a poster near Kotwali police station in Patna, with photographs of Nitish and two tigers printed on it.

Earlier in January this year, senior JD(U) leader and minister Ashok Choudhary had remarked, 'Tiger Abhi Zinda Hai' when Nitish was under attack from various quarters. At the time, Nitish was with the RJD-led grand alliance.

A senior JD(U) leader on Friday refused to comment on Nitish touching Modi's feet, but RJD criticised the act. "It is surprising that Nitish stoops so low in his lust for power. It is the height of decadence. People of Bihar have not liked the scene. Nitish is a senior leader, and it cannot be approved by any yardstick," RJD leader Mrityunjay Tiwari said.

Akhilesh leads Oppn parleys against BJP

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

EVEN as the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) on Friday staked claim to form the new government, the Opposition INDIA bloc said it will continue to hold parleys to build a stable formation to counter the BJP.

While TMC MPs Abhishek Banerjee and Derek O'Brien held talks with Shiv Sena leader Uddhav Thackeray in Mumbai and Samajwadi Party (SP) chief Akhilesh Yadav in New Delhi on Thursday, SP leaders told this newspaper that Yadav will be meeting more leaders in the coming days.

Speaking to this paper, SP spokesperson Ghanshyam Tiwari said that Yadav shares a good rapport with Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar and TDP leader Chandrababu Naidu. Both Naidu and Kumar have extended support to the BJP, which fell short of the majority mark of 272 seats to form the government.

When asked if Akhilesh has been tasked to reach out to the leaders, Tiwari said, "I will not be surprised if Akhilesh has already spoken to Nitish Kumar or Naidu as he has a long association with both the leaders. There was a meeting between Naidu and DMK leader Stalin too. There will be more interactions that are not in the public eye," he said.

The SP chief, who is currently camped in the national capital, would be meeting more leaders now.

"Abhishek Banerjee and Akhilesh Yadav held talks earlier. We shouldn't expect spontaneous results out of the meeting. We will see many things happening. There will be fallouts within the BJP too. After the UP results, knives are out of the BJP," Tiwari said.

"It is a good thing that different types of meetings are happening. Whether we are in opposition or reach a stage to form the government, the greater the interaction, the stronger and the more stable we are together. If we rush into government formation, it will be perceived as opportunistic," said Tiwari, adding that there has to be sufficient groundwork to build a stable, trusted, and illustrational formation. Earlier this week, the INDIA bloc said that it would take appropriate action at the appropriate time.

Dispelling reports of a separate camp emerging inside the bloc, the SP leader asserted that Congress has been kept in the loop about the meetings.

Meanwhile, speaking to this paper, Congress MP Manickam Tagore said that all partners of the INDIA alliance are on the same page and the interaction of the members is an ongoing process. "All members are on the same page on how to fight against the BJP. Conversation between the members is a continuing process. All the decisions were taken after consensus by INDIA bloc members," said Tagore.

The TMC, which has been holding separate meetings with alliance partners, also claimed that they are in touch with three BJP MPs from West Bengal. The claim has been denied by the BJP. After the meetings with alliance partners, TMC leader Derek O'Brien said that the Modi government has been rejected by the people and this is just the beginning.

'MORE THE MEETINGS, MORE THE STABILITY'

SP spokesperson Ghanshyam Tiwari said it is a good thing that different types of meetings are happening. "Whether we are in opposition or reach a stage to form the government, the greater the interaction, the stronger and the more stable we are together," he said. Dispelling reports of a separate camp emerging inside the INDIA bloc, he asserted that Congress has been kept in the loop about the meetings.

May temperature 1.5°C warmer than earlier heatwave days recorded: Study

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @New Delhi

Study highlights

- Soaring temperatures are human-driven climate change
- Over 37 cities saw temperatures above 45°C in May, leading to 56 casualties, 25K heat stroke cases

INDIA'S heatwave in May 2024 was 1.5°Celcius warmer than previous highs, as per a study.

According to a study by an independent group of climate scientists and researchers at ClimaMeter, heatwaves like those that hit northern India are now at least 1.5°C more intense.

The report stated that soaring temperatures are human-driven climate change and natural variability. Last week of May saw over 37 cities recording temperatures above 45°C, leading to heat-related illnesses with at least 56 casualties, and 25,000 suspected heat stroke cases.

The analysts said India's prolonged heat wave resulted from the naturally occurring El Nino phenomenon — unusual warming of the ocean surface in the central and eastern tropical Pacific Ocean- and the rapidly increasing concentration of greenhouse gases — primarily carbon dioxide and methane- in the atmosphere.

The researchers analysed how events similar to the high temperatures in India's May heatwave changed in the present (2001-23) compared to the past (1979-01).

"The temperature changes show that similar events produce temperatures in the present climate at least 1.5 d grees Celsius warmer than what they would have been in the past over a large area of the region analysed. The precipitation changes do not show any significant variations," the analysis read.

ClimaMeter's findings underscore that heat waves in India are reaching unbearable temperature thresholds because of burning fossil fuels, said Davide Faranda of the French National Centre for Scientific Research.

"There are no technological solutions for temperatures approaching 50°C. We should all act now to reduce CO2 emissions and avoid exceeding vital temperature thresholds in large areas of the subtropics," he said.

Gianmarco Mengaldo of the National University of Singapore said the findings show the complex interplay between natural variability and climate change, with the latter playing an essential role in critical synoptic-weather-pattern changes in tropical and subtropical regions that may significantly aggravate heatwaves shortly.

Northwest India and parts of the central region reeled under a punishing heatwave in May, testing India's disaster preparedness, with several states reporting heat-related deaths.

There are concerns that heatwaves in April and May have played a role in lower voter turnout during the Lok Sabha elections in India that began on April 19 and ended on June 1.

'Revision of answer key led to NEET-UG result glitch'

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

AMID controversy over inflated marks that led to a record 67 candidates achieving the first rank, the National Testing Agency (NTA), which conducts the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (Undergraduate) (NEET-UG) exam, clarified on Thursday that the anomalies were due to revisions in the answer key for the Physics exam and awarding of compensatory marks for loss of time.

"Out of the 67 candidates who scored 720/720 marks, 44 benefitted from a revision in one Physics answer key, and six received compensatory marks for loss of time," the NTA stated, as students, parents, educators, and the medical fraternity questioned how 67 students shared the same rank.

"It is pertinent to mention that the toppers are from across the country," the NTA added, denying claims that six toppers were from the same examination centre in Haryana. The Congress party had raised concerns that six students from the same centre scored 720 out of 720 marks, questioning the integrity of the results. Since the results were announced on June 4, they have been mired in controversy. Many students, parents, and medical practitioners have taken to social media to criticise the NTA.

The NTA statement said, "The cut-off scores are determined based on the overall performance of candidates each year. The increase in cut-off reflects the competitive nature of the examination and the candidates' higher performance standards this year."

Addressing the controversy of 67 toppers, the NTA noted that last year, 20,38,596 candidates appeared for the NEET-UG exam, while the number of candidates who appeared in 2024 increased to 23,33,297.

4 students from Jalgaon drown in Russia, 1 saved

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

IN A tragic event, four Indian students hailing from Maharashtra's Jalgaon drowned in the Volkhov River in Russia. A fifth student was rescued and is receiving treatment. The bodies of two students have been recovered, while those of the other two remain missing.

The four students who drowned included two boys and two girls, aged 18 to 20.

According to reports, one of the girls could not wade out of the river, and in an attempt to save her, three others drowned.

"We are working to send the bodies to the relatives as soon as possible. Proper treatment is also being provided to the student whose life has been saved," according to the Embassy of India in Moscow.

The Indian students were studying at the Yaroslav-the-Wise Novgorod State University located in Veliky Novgorod, Russia.

"Our Consulate in St. Petersburg is in contact with the university and local authorities and is providing all possible assistance. Local emergency services have so far recovered two dead bodies from the Volkhov River. We offer our condolences to the families of the deceased. The search for the remaining two missing students continues," said the Ministry of External Affairs.

Meanwhile, Jalgaon district collector Ayush Prasad said it was an unfortunate incident where five students drowned in a river near St. Petersburg in Russia, of which one student's life has been saved by the authorities in Russia and four students have died.

■ Minister Girish Mahajan may be elevated in CM Shinde-led MahaYuti govt ■ Assam CM's remark of 'almost a religious war' triggers protests

Fadnavis firm on resignation as DCM, close aide may replace him

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AS Maharashtra deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis is firm on his decision to resign taking responsibility for the NDA's poor performance in the state, BJP minister Girish Mahajan, a close aide of Fadnavis, is likely to be elevated as deputy CM in Eknath Shinde-led government, sources said, adding the party leadership is yet to decide on it.

Fadnavis took the onus of BJP's major defeat in Lok Sabha elections where BJP's tally dropped from 23 seats in 2019 to nine. The BJP leader said they failed to counter the narrative of the Opposition and that damaged poll prospects. In the 2004 and 2009 Lok Sabha elections, BJP had won the nine seats.

"BJP state president Chandrashekar Bawankule and party ministers tried to persuade Fadnavis to rethink his decision, but he is firm and even met top party leaders in Delhi to convey his resignation decision," a party leader said, wishing not to be named.

A source said that the top leadership of BJP is unhappy with Fadnavis. "Despite having power in the state and at the Centre, BJP abysmally failed in Lok Sabha elections. The onus was put on Fadnavis and he was asked to step down," the source said.

Fadnavis said he wants to work for the party for the forthcoming assembly elections. "By taking Fadnavis' resignation, BJP leadership is also trying to put pressure on Uttar Pradesh chief minister Yogi Adityanath where BJP tally came down drastically," Shiv Sena (UBT) leader Sanjay Raut said. "BJP is in panic, therefore they are seeking their leaders' resignation. Modi and Amit Shah also need to step down taking the responsibility of BJP's defeat in general elections," Raut added.

Sources said Fadnavis has proposed the name of his close aide Girish Mahajan for deputy chief minister post who will also handle the home ministry in the state. "In Jalgaon district, BJP won both Lok Sabha seats – Jalgaon and Raver. Mahajan comes from that district so he has been given credit for BJP's victory in Jalgaon," a party leader said, requesting anonymity. "Besides, Fadnavis will also have a major say when it comes to taking some decisions in the home department. Therefore, Mahajan's name has been proposed. However the party high command is to take a final decision over it," he added.

Meanwhile, deputy CM Ajit Pawar on Friday said that the offer of Fadnavis to resign over the BJP's poor performance in the state was not discussed at the NDA meeting in Delhi.

Speaking to reporters in Delhi, Pawar, whose NCP won a seat in the Lok Sabha elections, said, "The offer by Fadnavis to quit as Deputy CM is an internal matter of the BJP and there was no reason for it to be discussed at the NDA meeting in Delhi." Sources said Home Minister Amit Shah has spoken to Fadnavis and asked him to continue his work in the government.

Himanta rapped over blaming religious leaders for NDA loss

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Voice of the People Party (VPP) in Meghalaya hit back at Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma on Friday for his statement that the NDA suffered in Nagaland, Manipur and Meghalaya due to the involvement of religious leaders in the Lok Sabha elections.

Describing the statement as "unfounded, baseless and communal in nature", VPP chief Ardent Miller Basaiawmoit said Sarma should mind his own business and party.

"I condemn the statement made by Himanta Biswa Sarma that a particular religion in Meghalaya was the cause for the defeat of the NDA candidates. The Church in Meghalaya has never been involved in electoral politics," Basaiawmoit said.

"He has no right to interfere in the affairs of Meghalaya... The people of the state have the right to elect any person as long as he or she is a citizen of India. They are not so naive to not know the aims, objectives, agenda and manifestos of the political parties," the VPP chief said.

He said the people of Meghalaya would elect a party which believes in the Constitution, secularism and protects the interests of the minority communities. "Therefore, you cannot expect that as a Christian, I will vote or elect a person who belongs to a party that stands against the Constitution of India, which is not secular and is a threat to the minorities in the country," he added.

On Thursday, the Assam CM had said BJP workers in the three states told him that the elections were "almost a religious war".

"When religious people take part in politics in those states, then politicians cannot compete and their role becomes minimised. I think this is the reason why we suffered in certain areas of Northeast," Sarma had said.

The CM had also said that people had certain grievances and they expressed the same through voting.

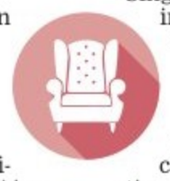
The two seats in Meghalaya were bagged by the VPP and the Congress. The Congress also won the two seats in ethnic violence-hit Manipur and the lone seat in Nagaland. Meghalaya and Nagaland are Christian-majority states.

The BJP and its regional allies improved upon their performance in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls in Assam but Congress made a comeback the Northeast comprising 25 constituencies. The Congress won seven seats across four states, three more than its tally across Assam and Meghalaya five years ago.

BJP MPs elected from U'khand face uphill task to get Modi cabinet berths

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

CONSIDERING the political significance and imperative of coalition dynamics within the National Democratic Alliance, obtaining a position in the Union Cabinet from Uttarakhand this time around will prove to be a challenging feat for the MPs compared to the situation in 2019. Yet, four of the five MPs who won by respectable margins in all five seats in the state have begun jostling for ministerial berths.



While the BJP is not in a position to rule independently, securing ministerial berths presents quite a challenge for Uttarakhand MPs within the NDA alliance. "The prospects of Ajay Bhatt, Anil Baluni, Trivendra Singh Rawat, and Ajay Tamta hinge on the complex dynamics of political manoeuvring that will unfold shortly," said a senior BJP leader.

Ajay Tamta, who won again from the Almora reserved parliamentary seat, served as a minister of state in Modi's first term. In 2019, Bhatt, who defeated former CM Harish Rawat by a margin of 3.39 lakh votes in the Nainital constituency, emerged as a strong contender for the ministerial post. In the 2024 elections, Bhatt once again won by an equal margin of 3.34 lakh votes. However, this time Bhatt is facing significant challenges due to the formation of a coalition government.

Senior political analyst Jai Singh Rawat said, "Bhatt faces a formidable challenge against Anil Baluni, who won the Garhwal seat, and former Chief Minister Trivendra Singh Rawat, who triumphed in Haridwar. Despite this, Rawat believes that Bhatt's pristine reputation and distance from factionalism will provide him with a significant edge for the induction in the Central cabinet."

Speaking to this newspaper, Jai Singh Rawat also claimed, "If Anil Baluni were to be made a minister, the party could have appointed him as a minister at the Centre even though he was a Rajya Sabha member."

However, Trivendra Singh Rawat is also considered to be in favor of Home Minister Amit Shah, due to which he will also present his claim for the ministerial position.

CAMPAIGN CROWDFUNDED

The giant slayer calls for Cong strength, not caste, to revive

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

BREAKING the jinx of the state having no Congress MP in the last ten years, Geniben Thakor triumphed in Gujarat, ending the BJP's streak of victories. Her feat was a testament to her relentless efforts and innovative use of crowdfunding for her campaign. Following her achievement, Thakor, – who won the Banaskantha Lok Sabha seat– observed that instead of relying on community-based support, Congress should win on its strength.

The MP-elect said, "It is unfortunate that a candidate has to rely on the strength of his/her caste," she said, underscoring that a Congress candidate cannot succeed without the active support of the party organisation.

The Congress system, she said, needs significant reforms. "This initiative has begun in Banaskantha. Those working against the party should be removed, and if not, they should be punished. If such individuals are not dealt with, they will inspire others and ultimately harm the Congress," Thakor asserted.

Meanwhile, her dedication infused the constituencies, even those lacking a strong Congress presence, with a new breath of life.

According to her election affidavit, 48-year-old Geniben completed her graduation at Jain Vishva Bharati Institute in 2020. She lost her first assembly election from Vav in 2012 against senior cooperative leader Shankar Chaudhary of the BJP but secured victory in the subsequent election. In 2017, as a Congress candidate, she defeated Shankar Chaudhary by 6,655 votes. She was re-elected from the Vav seat in the 2022 Gujarat Assembly election.

Notably, Ganiben's husband, Thakor Shankarji, is a farmer from a middle-class background. However, there is a pending criminal case against Geniben. The campaign for the Lok Sabha polls was challenging for Geniben Thakor. With her party unable to provide financial support, she went door-to-door in her constituency to raise funds and reportedly raised ~ 50 lakh for her campaign.

Geniben is known across the state as a powerful speaker who occasionally stirs up controversy. Previously, she sparked debate by endorsing the decision of 800 village 'elders' in Banaskantha to restrict mobile phone use for unmarried girls. She also supported a ban on inter-caste marriages and proposed penalties for parents whose children engage in such unions. Additionally, she backed a proposal by BJP MLA Fateshinh Chauhan from Kalol to amend the Gujarat Registration of Marriages Act, 2006, making parental signatures mandatory for marriage registration.

Data says 89% candidates lost deposits in J&K, 68% polled fewer than NOTAs

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

ABOUT 89 per cent candidates, who contested the Lok Sabha polls in Jammu and Kashmir, forfeited their security deposits and these include all three candidates of Ghulam Nabi Azad's DPAP, two candidates of BJP-backed Apni Party and PDP candidate from Baramulla seat. According to Election Commission of India data, a total of 100 candidates contested from five Lok Sabha seats in J&K --- Udhampur, Jammu, Anantnag-Rajouri, Srinagar and Baramulla.

Of the 100 contesting candidates, only BJP's two winning candidates, NC's two winning candidates, independent cand date Er Rashid, former CM Omar Abdullah, who lost election to Er Rashid, former CM and PDP chief Mehbooba Mufti who lost to NC's Mian Altaf and PDP leader Waheed Para who lost to NC's Aga Ruhullah in Srinagar seat and Sajad Lone of Peoples Conference and two losing candidates of Congress from Jammu region managed to save their security while rest others forfeited their deposits.

A total of 89 candidates forfeited their security deposits after the election results as they could not secure 16.67% votes in the constituency needed to save security deposits.

Of them, three candidates belong to Azad's DPAP -- Ghulam Nabi Saroori, who contested Udhampur LS seat and secured only 3.56% votes, Mohammad Saleem Parray who secured only 2.47% votes in Anantnag-Rajouri seat and Amir Ahmad Bhat who could only get 2.24% votes in Srinagar LS seat.

The BJP-backed Apni Party candidates also lost security deposits on both Anantnag and Srinagar LS seats.

Of the 100 candidates, 89 in J&K failed to get 16.67% of the total votes polled in their constituencies and forfeited their deposits. They included all the candidates fielded by J&K Apni Party of Syed Altaf Bukhari and Democratic Progressive Azad Party of Ghulam Nabi Azad, besides the PDP's Baramulla candidate Mir Mohammad Fayaz. Similarly, 68 out of 100 candidates polled fewer than NOTA votes in five seats in the UT.

Indefinite curfew in Manipur district after 59-year-old killed by miscreants

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE Manipur government has imposed curfew in Jiribam district for an indefinite period after people staged protests over the killing of a 59-year-old man by suspected militants, an official said on Friday.

The prohibitory orders were clamped on Thursday night after locals set a few abandoned structures on fire following the recovery of the body of Soibam Saratkumar Singh.

The deceased was reported missing after he went to his farm on Thursday morning. The security forces recovered his body later that evening. The body bore injury marks.

When news about the man's killing spread, the locals vented their ire by setting ablaze some structures. They also staged a protest in front of the Jiribam police station. The situation prompted the authorities to impose curfew on Thursday night. No untoward incident was reported on Friday.

"There is the likelihood of widespread disturbance to peace and public tranquillity or riot or an affray because of unlawful activities of anti-social elements," the official said, citing the orders issued by the Office of District Magistrate Jiribam.

The local administration also prohibited "assembly of five persons or more, which is likely to turn unlawful, carrying of firearms, sticks... and movement of any person outside their respective residences within the revenue jurisdiction of the district".

Singh went missing after he had gone to his farm on Thursday morning and later, his body was found with wounds made by a sharp object, a police officer said. Locals had staged a protest in front of Jiribam Police Station, demanding that their licenced firearms taken from them in the wake of elections be returned to them after the completion of the polls.

The administration appealed to the people to maintain peace in the district. "Jiribam district is facing a difficult time in terms of law and order, public peace and tranquillity", a notice said, adding that "an appeal is made to all sections of society...to maintain peace and calm and not succumb to any false information".

The district magistrate also requested the Jiribam superintendent of police to "identify vulnerable pockets and deploy security forces to avoid unwanted incidents". A joint control room comprising officials of Assam Rifles, Central Reserve Police Force, Manipur Police and Indian Reserve Battalion has also been set up for quick communication among security forces in the district.

After BJP rout in tribal seats, question mark on J'khand party leadership

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

AFTER suffering a defeat in the tribal heartlands, state BJP president Babulal Marandi is likely to face the brunt of central leadership's displeasure. Party insiders suggest that the BJP may overhaul its organizational structure following its failure to attract tribal voters, potentially replacing Marandi with another tribal leader capable of reclaiming lost ground in the five tribal seats – Rajmahal, Singhbhum, Khunti, Lohardaga, and Dumka.

Following the setback in the 2019 assembly elections, BJP appointed Babulal Marandi, an old-timer, to lead the party in Jharkhand. However, he couldn't even retain the three tribal seats – Khunti, Lohardaga, and Dumka – won by the party in the previous polls. This time, BJP lost all five tribal seats in the state.

Party functionaries had hoped that Marandi, with his strong mass base in Santhal Pargana, would attract tribal voters. Despite concerted efforts, BJP failed to secure any reserved tribal seats in the state. In four out of the five reserved seats, the party suffered defeats by over 120,000 votes.

Although Marandi defeated JMM Patriarch Shibu Soren in 1998 and 1999, establishing himself as a tribal leader in Santhal Pargana and Jharkhand politics, he could not convert his popularity into votes in the tribal region. With Assembly elections scheduled for November-December, swift action is imperative to avoid a repeat of the 2019 scenario in 2024.

There's now a period of introspection within the Jharkhand BJP, with questions being raised about state leadership. The results indicate a tough road ahead for BJP in the Assembly elections. The five tribal LS seats correspond to 28 Assembly constituencies reserved for Scheduled Tribes.

Delay in weapons delivery: Biden apology to Zelensky

PARIS

US President Joe Biden on Friday for the first time publicly apologised to Ukraine for a monthslong congressional holdup in American military assistance that let Russia make gains on the battlefield.

Biden met in Paris with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky, who appealed for bipartisan US support going forward 'like it was during World War II.' A day earlier, the two had attended ceremonies marking the 80th anniversary of the D-Day landings in Normandy, where Biden had drawn common cause between the allied forces that helped free Europe from Nazi Germany and today's effort to support Ukraine against Russia's invasion and Zelensky had been greeted with a rapt ovation.

"I apologise for those weeks of not knowing what's going to happen in terms of funding," Biden said, referring to the six-month holdup by conservative Republicans in Congress to a $61 billion military aid package for Ukraine. Still, the Democratic president insisted that the American people were standing by Ukraine for the long haul. "We're still in. Completely. Thoroughly," he said.

The apology and Zelensky's plea for rock-solid support akin to the allied coalition in WWII ' served as a reminder that for all of Biden's talk of an unflagging US commitment to Ukraine, recalcitrance among congressional Republicans and an isolationist strain in American politics have exposed its fragility. And, although unremarked upon, the spectre of Donald Trump's candidacy loomed over the discussion, as the Republican former president and the presumptive nominee has spoken positively of Russian President Vladimir Putin and sparked Ukrainian concerns that he would call for it to cede territory to end the conflict.

Zelensky pressed for all Americans to support his country's defense against Russia's invasion, and he thanked lawmakers for eventually coming together to approve the weapons package, which has allowed Ukraine to stem Russian advances in recent weeks.

"It's very important that in this unity, United States of America, all American people stay with Ukraine like it was during World War II," Zelenskyy said. "How the United States helped to save human lives, to save Europe. And we count on your continuing support in standing with us shoulder to shoulder."

Sunita & Co overcome new issues; enter ISS

Sunita Williams breaks into a dance after docking at ISS on Thursday | AFP

HOUSTON

NASA's Indian-origin astronaut Sunita Williams and her colleague Butch Wilmore have successfully docked Boeing's Starliner spacecraft to the International Space Station (ISS) after overcoming new issues that cropped up en route to the orbiting laboratory. Williams, 58, flew to space for the third time on Wednesday along with Wilmore, scripting history as the first members aboard Boeing's Starliner spacecraft to the ISS. Williams is the pilot for the flight test while Wilmore, 61, is the commander of the mission.

Boeing Starliner spacecraft successfully docked at the International Space Station at 1:34 pm on Thursday, about 26 hours after launching from Cape Canaveral Space Force Station, NASA said in a statement. Williams shared her gratitude to the family and friends who have been with them during the lead-up to the launch. "We have another family up here, which is just awesome,' Williams said. 'And we're just happy as can be to be up in space, one in Starliner on an Atlas V, and then here at the International Space Station. It just doesn't get much better."

On the way to the ISS, the crew completed a series of tests including manually flying Starliner for the first time in space. The two Starliner astronauts, are joining seven others currently living on the station.

"It is both amazing and humbling to join the fleet of commercial spacecraft capable of conducting crewed transportation services to and from the space station for NASA. Our teams have done some great work to get us to this point," said Kay Sears, vice president and general manager of Space, Intelligence & Weapon Systems for Boeing Defence, Space & Security. "The launch yesterday and docking today puts the Starliner on a path to certification," said Jim Free, NASA Associate Administrator, during a news conference.

RBI warns MFIs, NBFCs against usurious pricing of small loans

Industry veteran says the reason for concern raised by the governor is nearly 5% of the MFIs are charging interest rate of about 28% on average

BEN KOCHUVEEDAN @Mumbai

STATING that public interest is a top priority for the Reserve Bank, Governor Shaktikanta Das has warned some microlenders and non-bank lenders against their usurious lending practices in general and particularly when it comes to small ticket borrowers — something the industry body admits to be done by a few section of its members.

"Customer protection remains on top of RBI's priorities. In general, we've observed that guidelines on key facts statement (KFS) are followed, but a few regulated entities still charge fees that are not specified or disclosed in KFS. It is observed in some micro finance companies and NBFCs the rates on small value loans are high and appear to be usurious," Das said on Friday, unveiling monetary policy.

When contacted Sadaf Sayeed, CEO of Muthoot Microfin, which is among top players and recently went public, and who is on the board of microlenders self-regulatory organisation Sadhan, said the governor's comment should be read as directional. "A couple of months ago RBI called us for a meeting on high interest rates issue, which to be factual is charged only by about 5% of our members. Over 95% of members charge 24%, which is below the peak rate of 26% prescribed by the YH Malegam panel," Sayeed told the TNIE over phone. He said these 5% of the MFIs are charging about 28%, on average, which is the reason for concern raised by the governor.

"Following the meeting with RBI officials, we have sent show-cause notice to these members, but they haven't acted upon yet. So will have to send them a reminder," he added. In 2010, after the crisis in the MFI industry following the Vikram Akula's SKS Microfinance scandal, RBI appointed a panel under YH Malegam to review the microfinance sector in response to the growing concerns about the practices of microfinance institutions and the impact they were having on livelihoods of poor borrowers.

The major recommendations of panel were capping the rate at 2.75x of the base rate of the top five banks (means it should be reasonable and affordable for borrowers), and that the margin cap (difference between cost of funds and lending rate) should not exceed 10%. Later RBI fine-tuned this and capped the rates at 26%.

Auto reloading for UPI Lite wallet proposed

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru

IN order to encourage wider adoption of UPI Lite, the RBI on Friday proposed a facility for customers to automatically reload their UPI Lite wallet when the balance goes below the threshold set by users.

"This will enhance ease of making small value digital payments," said RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das. UPI Lite was introduced in September 2022 to enable small value payments in a quick and seamless manner via an on-device wallet.

He proposed to include payments, such as replenishment of balances in Fastag, National Common Mobility Card (NCMC), etc. that are recurring in nature but without any fixed periodicity, in the e-mandate framework. "This will enable customers to automatically replenish balances in Fastag, NCMC, etc. if the balance goes below the threshold limit set by them. This will enhance convenience in making travel/mobility related payments," he said. The RBI proposed to establish a digital payments intelligence platform, and has constituted a panel to examine various aspects of setting up the platform. Ankit Ratan, cofounder & CEO of Signzy, said the RBI's focus on building a secure financial system is commendable. "Last week, RBI published its Annual Report which highlighted a rise in digital payment frauds."

'Not worried over inflows from global bond inclusion'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank Governor Shaktikanta Das on Friday said he does not see any problems arising from the likely heavy inflows from the inclusion of bond into the global indices. The first bond inclusion by JP Morgan is expected by the end of the month and the next from January by Bloomberg.

"The RBI has a number of instrumentalities, and we have managed it in the past, and we will manage it this time also. No worries on that (expected foreign fund flows from the bond inclusion)," the governor told reporters at the customary post-policy media conference on Friday.

RBI has a number of instrumentalities, and we have managed it in the past, and we will manage it this time also
Shaktikanta Das, RBI Governor

While the Wall Street major JPMorgan Chase will add the government bonds to its benchmark emerging-market index from later this month, Bloomberg will do so from January. The JP Morgan inclusion alone is expected to bring in at least $25 billion into the country.

The index provider will add the securities to the JPMorgan government bond index-emerging markets index starting June 28.

A section in the finance ministry are reportedly a bit concerned as they think this could be 'hot money' while according to the RBI the amount invested by foreign investors under the fully accessible route (FAR) so far is not too large.

As per Clearing Corporation of India (CCI) data, investments under the FAR route stood at ₹1.74 trillion on June 7. FAR or fully accessible route was introduced by the Reserve Bank in April 2020, allowing non-residents to invest in specified government bonds without any restrictions.

The investment limit on foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) in government securities overall is 6% sans the FAR route.

Adani Green Energy secures 20-year PPA with Sri Lanka

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

ADANI Green Energy is said to have secured a 20-year power purchase agreement (PPA) with Sri Lanka for the development of two wind projects.

According to a report, the agreement, finalised by the Sri Lankan government, encompasses projects with a total capacity of 484 megawatts (MW) to be constructed in the towns of Mannar and Pooneryn.

Adani Green will be compensated at a rate of $0.0826 per kilowatt hour (kWh) for the electricity generated.

This marks Adani Group's second major investment in Sri Lanka, following their involvement in the West Container Terminal project at Colombo port.

In April 2024, Adani Green Energy Limited announced a significant expansion plan with a planned investment of ₹2.3 trillion ($27.6 billion) to boost its solar and wind power generation capacity by 2030.

This ambitious strategy includes an additional ₹50 billion dedicated to renewable projects across India. These investments aim to propel Adani Green towards achieving a 45GW operating portfolio by 2030, a substantial increase from their current 10.9GW capacity.

Demonstrating their commitment to renewables, Adani Green recently commenced operations at a 551MW solar power plant in Khavda, Gujarat, India.

This facility is already supplying power to the national grid, and the company envisions transforming Khavda into the world's largest solar park with a projected capacity of 30GW.

Taxes on no-show air passengers; DGCA to probe

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

IN a recent development, the Directorate General of Goods and Services Tax Intelligence (DGGI) has initiated investigations into airlines retaining taxes collected from customers in the cases of no-show by passengers, sources told TNIE.

The issue revolves around whether airlines can rightfully keep taxes, including GST, when a passenger fails to board a flight. Sale of airline tickets is subject to GST, with economy class tickets taxed at 5% and business class tickets at 12%. However, concerns have been raised regarding the taxation of consideration collected from passengers who do not avail of the airline service due to a no-show scenario, as per government sources.

Abhishek A Rastogi, founder of Rastogi Chambers, emphasised that in instances of no-show, where the passenger does not utilise the airline service, the question arises as to whether the taxes collected should be refunded to the customer. Additionally, he said, "While economy class ticket is taxed at 5%, business class ticket is taxed at 12%. In no-show, the customer has not availed any service or in other words has not availed the service of an airline passenger. Accordingly, the issue remains whether the consideration collected by (airline) be taxed at 0%, 5/12% or 18%." With one airline already having paid tax following DGGI scrutiny, the industry awaits further regulatory actions and potential probes into tax recovery from other airlines. The debate continues on whether airlines should refund GST collected from no-show passengers, sparking discussions on the appropriate tax rate for consideration retained in such cases.

"Ideally, the airline must refund the GST collected from the customer as the airline service was never provided. Further, from the consideration towards service received, the tax, if any, must be calculated on the retained amount at the rate to which such retention amount pertains to," stated Rastogi.

ONGC seeks global know-how for its oil field

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

OIL and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) is seeking a proven international technical service provider to boost production from its maturing Mumbai High field in the Arabian Sea.

The company launched an international competitive bidding (ICB) process on June 1, 2024, to identify the service provider. The ICB is open to all international oil and gas majors with an annual revenue exceeding $75 billion. "As a custodian and operator of Mumbai High field, ONGC is keen to collaborate with a global 'Technical Service Provider'. The service provider would be contracted for ten years, extendable by another five years," said the company in a social media post.

The service provider will be chosen through the ongoing ICB process, with bids due by September 15, 2024. Mumbai High, a giant multi-layered field, began production in 1976 and is currently in its mature stage. ONGC has implemented various initiatives to enhance production over the years.

"Mumbai High is one of the prime assets of ONGC and significant upside is still to be unlocked here if ONGC applies best-in-class reservoir management technologies and adopt globally-best operational and management practices," said the company.

CHINA

MAY EXPORTS GROW FASTEST AT 7.6% IN OVER A YEAR

China's exports in May increased at their fastest pace in over a year despite trade tensions, according to customs data released Friday. However, imports fell short of analyst expectations, according to customs data released Friday. The country's exports grew 7.6 in the month from the same month last year to $302.35 billion, rising at the fastest pace since April 2023. Imports increased by 1.8% to $219.73 billion, missing estimates of about 4% growth. The uptick in exports is also partly due to a lower base in the same period last year, when exports declined 7.5%. In comparison, exports grew by 1.5% in April compared to the same period last year while April imports rose by 8.4%. The strong exports caused China's trade surplus to widen to $82.62 billion, up from April's $72.35 billion.

JAPAN

CONSUMER SPENDING RISES FOR 1ST TIME IN 14 MONTHS

The household spending of Japan grew for the first time in 14 months in April from the year earlier, as per the official data released on Friday. Tepid growth showed consumers remained reluctant to loosen their purse-strings in the face of higher prices. As per the internal affairs ministry, consumer spending grew 0.5% in April from a year earlier. This was slightly below the median market forecast for a 0.6% uptick. On a seasonally adjusted, month-on-month basis, spending fell 1.2% as against estimated 0.2% rise. Sluggish private consumption is a source of concern for policymakers striving to achieve sustained economic growth underpinned by solid wages and durable inflation, which are prerequisites for normalising monetary policy.

THAILAND

MAY HEADLINE INFLATION HITS 13-MONTH HIGH

Headline inflation in Thailand hit its highest level in 13 months in May and returned to the central bank's target range of 1-3% for the first time in a year, according to the commerce ministry data released on Friday. The headline consumer price index (CPI) increased in May for a second straight month, a rise of 1.54% from a year earlier, after the previous month's annual rise of 0.19%, the ministry said. The inflation in May should ease pressure on the central bank to cut borrowing costs, sought by the government, when it next reviews monetary policy on Wednesday. Most economists expect the key rate to remain steady at a more than decade high of 2.5% next week.

Insurance marketplace Bima Sugam expected to be launched by April 2025

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE first phase of Bima Sugam, a one-stop online solution for all insurance needs, is expected to be launched next year around April 2025.

In a meeting chaired by IRDAI chairman Debasish Panda to review the status of Bima Sugam project on Friday, it was informed that filing formalities for the incorporation of the entity have been completed. The entity would be incorporated as a Section 8 (non-profit) company under the name 'Bima Sugam India Federation'.

The meeting was attended by the CEOs of life, general and health insurance companies, along with the Life and General Insurance Councils.

A statement by the General Insurance Council said the process of appointing the MD & CEO, along with other key managerial personnel for the Bima Sugam entity, is nearing completion. The business structure of Bima Sugam and updates from various sub-groups, including operations and technology, were also reviewed during the meeting. Panda stated that Bima Sugam is a revolutionary project for the Indian insurance sector and is poised to democratise and universalise insurance in India and possibly one of the first initiatives of its kind across the world.

Tapan Singhel, chairman of the General Insurance Council, says the collective efforts of all stakeholders are critical, and they are confident that the platform will play a pivotal role in achieving Insurance for All by 2047. The meeting included discussions on recently notified health insurance regulations/master circular, which have been revamped by the regulator to ease the overall experience of the policyholders.

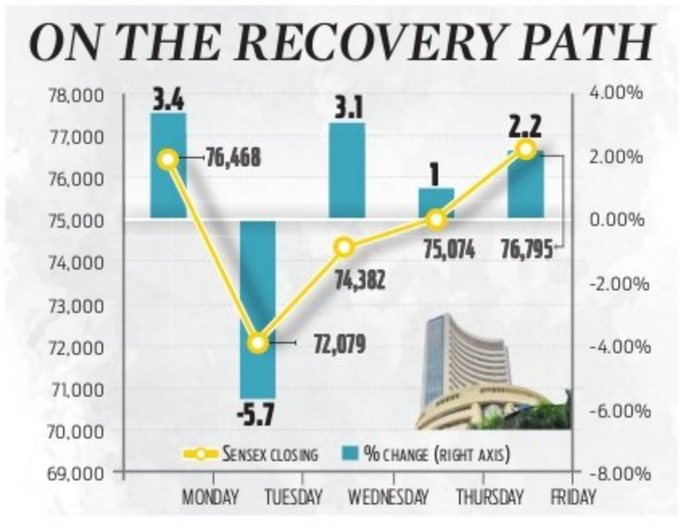
Mkt recovers from counting day massive fall

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

ON the back of sharp buying over the past three sessions, domestic equity market recovered from the earth-shattering fall it witnessed on the Lok Sabha election result day (Tuesday). On Friday, Sensex and Nifty gained more than 2% each and investors' cumulative wealth surged by ₹7.5 lakh crore.

The Sensex hit its fresh all-time high of 76,795.31 during the Friday session before closing at 1,619 points, or 2.16%, higher at 76,693.36. Nifty 50 closed 469 points, or 2.05%, higher at 23,290.15.

The recovery is attributed to political stability at the Centre as Prime Minster Narendra Modi's BJP, despite failing to secure 272 seats, has received support from key NDA allies. The fresh buying is also attributed to the Reserve Bank of India maintaining a status quo on the repo rates and policy stance while revising the GDP estimates for FY25 upwards in its latest MPC meeting.



"The anticipation of stability within the coalition government at the centre, coupled with the RBI's upward revision of its growth forecast for FY25 to 7.2%, fuelled a broad-based rally in the domestic market. The Indian market surpassed its previous record high set on exit poll day and reached a fresh peak. Though the last mile towards the inflation target remains sticky, investors are expecting the MPC to be one step closer to the easing cycle," said Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Financial Services. The market capitalisation of all the firms listed on the BSE rose to ₹423.4 lakh crore on Friday from nearly ₹415.9 lakh crore in the previous session, making investors wealthier by ₹7.5 lakh crore in a single session. In the broader market, the BSE Midcap index rose 1.28%, while the Smallcap index ended with a gain of 2.18%. In the Sensex index, all its 30 constituents ended in the positive territory, with Mahindra & Mahindra, Wipro, Tech Mahindra, Bharti Airtel, Infosys and Tata Steel emerging as the biggest gainers.

The Monetary Policy Committee, consisting of three RBI and an equal number of external members, kept the repo rate unchanged at 6.50% for an eighth straight policy meeting and stuck to its relatively hawkish stance of "withdrawal of accommodation", Governor Shaktikanta Das said in his statement.

MORE FLIGHTS TO C ASIAN CITIES: INDIGO

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

INDIA'S largest airline IndiGo is doubling flights from Delhi to Almaty and Tbilisi starting on August 16, 2024, and to Tashkent starting on August 17. It will then operate daily flights from Tashkent, Almaty, and Tbilisi, up from the previous schedule of 4 flights per week to Tashkent and 3 flights per week to Almaty and Tbilisi.

The increased capacity addition to Central Asia comes as this region is fast becoming a favourite among Indian travellers. IndiGo had started operations to Tashkent, Almaty, and Tbilisi in 2023, as part of its International expansion plan.

Vinay Malhotra, head of global sales, IndiGo, said, "These new flights have been announced to cater to the rising demand for outbound and leisure travel to these destinations. With this, IndiGo now operates daily flights to all four of our Central Asian destinations."

Sift wins bronze as Munich World Cup concludes

Indian shooter Sift Kaur Samra claimed the bronze in the women's 50m rifle 3 positions on the final day of the ISSF World Cup (Rifle/Pistol), in Munich on Friday. India ended the competition with two medals. Sarabjot Singh had won gold in the men's 10m air pistol. Sift shot 452.9 and missed silver by an agonising 0.1 to China's Han Jiayu.

Rivalry resumes

Aussies face England while Netherlands look to upset Proteas once again. A look...

DUTCH CHALLENGE FOR SOUTH AFRICA

After a relatively easy win against Sri Lanka on a tricky pitch in New York in the tournament opener, South Africa face a Dutch test. The Netherlands have beaten South Africa on the last two occasions in ICC events and Scott Edwards' side is coming off to this fixture after a convincing victory against Nepal. It will be interesting to see how the Dutch adapt to the New York pitch.

ASHES RIVALS FACE FOR GROUP SUPREMACY

After sharing a point against Scotland in a rainwashed affair, England are set to face their arch-rivals for a chance to top group B. England were not able to break the opening partnership in their first fixture. They must come up with better plans against a deep Australian batting lineup.

HOSTS AIM TO SOLIDIFY THEIR POSITION

Even though they found a way to win against Papua New Guinea in the first match, West Indies' top order was made to work hard. Uganda might want to push their case early in the powerplay with the ball, but it will be interesting to see how the experienced West Indies unit comes together to make the most.

Today's games

Disciplined Canada hand Ireland second defeat

AGENCIES @ New York

A disciplined bowling from Canada handed Ireland their second loss of the T20 World Cup. Chasing 138 on a vastly superior wicket in the much-malaigned Stadium at Nassau, the Irish batters failed to get their innings going and lost by 12 runs. The experienced openers — Andy Balbirnie and Paul Stirling — were dismissed cheaply. With the middle-order folding without resistance, the all-rounders had too much to do. Credit to Jeremy Gordon and Dilon Heyliger, who combined for 4/34 in eight overs. Among the Canadians, Nicholas Kirton's 35-ball 49 set them on their way after a slow start. Brief scores: Canada 137/7 in 20 ovs (Kirton 49, Movva 37; McCarthy 2/24) bt Ireland 125/7 in 20 ovs (Dockrell 30 n.o; Gordon 2/16, Heyliger 2/18).

USA players celebrate their historic win over Pakistan on Thursday | AP

ICC MEN'S T20 WORLD CUP WEST INDIES & USA 2024 JUNE 1-29 — AMERICAN EXPEDITION

ON Thursday, Ali Khan won one of the game's many mini-battles. Up against Fakhar Zaman, a natural stroke-maker and someone who hits most bowling types, Khan knew this was a battle he started second favourite in. But he nipped him out, the southpaw's paddle failing to clear the man at fine-leg. US had the opening and they drove a car through it.

How Khan got to this stage — deciding games for his adopted country — in one of the sport's biggest stages is the story of a fair few others who came and tried before him. In the sparsely populated town of Centerville, Ohio, some 14 years ago, Khan, still a teen then, had just moved from Pakistan. The tape ball expert, according to the Guardian, sent down a few spicy deliveries. Word of Khan's expertise spread throughout the midwest.

He played pick-up games whenever his day job, mobile phone sales representative, gave him the time. "He," the guardian noted, "was spotted by Courtney Walsh in 2015 and won a spot with the Guyana Amazon Warriors in the Caribbean Premier League." From there, he did the hard yards. He was even picked by Kolkata in the IPL thus becoming the first American international to be picked in the league.

On Thursday, the yorker specialist had a new career highlight. Khan moved with his parents. Others moved for studies. Some came for the money. All of them came together to live a dream they first thought of in the country of their birth.

In the US, they fused together their impossible dream.

The cricketing community continues to be divided on both the short and long-term effects of the proliferation of T20 cricket. It has not only expanded the calendar but it has also shrinked international cricket. The relevance of the 50-over game, outside the World Cup, is up in the air and a fair few players have been forced to pick one or the other.

However, the proliferation of the game's shortest format has done US cricket a world of good. At last count, the US is home to as many as nine leagues run on the franchise model. While Major League Cricket is the most popular, the Minor League Cricket, Unity Cup, US Open, Houston Open, US Masters T10 among other events has given them invaluable amount of experience in a short time. The availability of these many competitions in their own backyard has allowed players to level up without being at the mercy of catching the attention of franchise teams in other parts of the globe.

An example. In last year's Major League Cricket final between Seattle Orcas and MI New York, Harmeet Singh, Steven Taylor, Nosthush Kenjige and Jasdeep Singh all featured. They played with the likes of Nicholas Pooran, Quinton de Kock and Trent Boult. All four were part of the US' first team against Pakistan.

Aaron Jones, who hit that thrilling, unbeaten 94 against Canada on opening night, was part of the Orcas' team in the inaugural edition of the MLC. While he couldn't land himself a gig in this year's edition, he should be snapped up in the second draft in less than 10 days' time. If the likes of Khan, Kenjige and Harmeet have a natural affinity towards the game, the likes of Taylor and Jones are the other side of the story. Kids born to non-Indian parents in the US and who picked the game despite the other options. If cricket is to make a long-term impact in the continent, there should be more Taylors and Jones' knocking on the door sooner rather than later (Taylor, in fact, is the first homegrown player in this team).

Even as late as 2020, the US team didn't have a passable floor. Now? They have a floor and a rising ceiling. The win against Pakistan is a Cupset but it cannot be viewed in isolation. A few weeks ago, they rolled Bangladesh 2-1 in a three-match series.

****

On opening night in Dallas, a sort of spiritual home for cricket in the US, a near capacity crowd, some of them locals, saw their team get over the line against Canada. In the crowd, a fair few came in with a cool cricket merchandise. On the front of the shirt was Abe Lincoln with the words 'Score Four'. It was a call back to Lincoln's famous Gettysburg Address (he begun his speech with 'score four...' It may have counted for nought as a violent thrashed the town, pulled down an LED screen and left the Grand Prairie ground in a state of some disrepair.

A week later, though, that will just be a footnote. Played two, won two and top of the standings in a group consisting of India and Pakistan. If all goes well from hereon in, Saurabh Netravalkar, who delivered that ice-cool Super Over against the latter, will be applying for a leave extension at Oracle as the Super 8s will beckon.

RIDERS OF THE STORM

THE MEN WHO DEFIED ODDS TO BEAT HIGHER-RANKED AND FANCIED TEAM PAKISTAN ON THURSDAY

MONANK PATEL
Born in India before moving to the United States. Received a green card over 13 years. Plays for the MI New York franchise

ALI KHAN
Made his name as the first American player to be signed by an IPL team (Kolkata). Born in Pakistan before moving to the US. First started playing club cricket in Ohio

STEVEN TAYLOR
The first homegrown international in this side. Born to Jamaican parents in the Sunshine State of Florida. A former captain of the side

ANDRIES GOUS
Product of South Africa's domestic system, he took the decision to move to the Americas. Featured in the inaugural edition of MLC

AARON JONES
Played that nerveless innings against Canada but place in the team was under scrutiny. Was unselected in the MLC draft this year. Born to Barbadian parents in NY

NITISH KUMAR
Born in Canada to Indian parents, played in a World Cup at just 16. But moved to the US at the ripe age of 26. Made his US debut a few months ago

COREY ANDERSON
The most well known member of the set-up, the hard-hitting Kiwi batter featured for the US for the first time early this year. Former holder of the record for fastest 100 in ODIs

HARMEET SINGH
A former youth international, Harmeet went to the US to try and become an international cricketer. When the MLC came calling, he packed his bags. Another of those who made his international T20 debut for the US in 2024

JASDEEP SINGH
One of the few in this side to have born in the US. Has played for multiple local sides apart from featuring for the national team in two formats over the last five years

NOSTHUSH KENJIGE
A unique player in this side who was born in the US, moved to India before going back to the land of opportunities. Has featured for Mumbai Indians in their overseas teams

SAURABH NETRAWALKAR
One of the most famous Indian cricketing exports, the Mumbai lad has played through the divisions for US. Before making the move across the Atlantic, made his debut for Mumbai in 2013

SCOTLAND DEFEAT NAMIBIA TO TOP GROUP B

BRIDGETOWN: Scotland moved atop Group B with a five-wicket win over Namibia with nine balls remaining. Captain Richie Berrington made an unbeaten 47 from 35 balls and shared a 74-run fifth-wicket partnership with Michael Leask (35 from 17) which steered Scotland to its first win over Namibia in four T20 internationals. Scotland took a point from its opening match against England, which was rained out, and now sits atop Group B with three points. Captain Gerhard Erasmus made 52 from 30 balls and put on 51 for the fifth wicket with Zane Green (28) as Namibia made 155 after choosing to bat. Brief scores: Namibia 155/9 in 20 ovs (Erasmus 52; Wheal 3/33, Currie 2/16) lost to Scotland 157/5 in 18.3 ovs (Berrington 47 n.o; Erasmus 2/29).

Alcaraz overcomes Sinner to reach summit clash

AGENCIES @ Paris

CARLOS Alcaraz reached his first French Open final by beating Jannik Sinner 2-6, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3 on Friday, making the 21-year-old from Spain the youngest man to reach a Grand Slam title match on three surfaces. Alcaraz won the U.S. Open in 2022 on hard courts, Wimbledon in 2023 on grass and now will play for the championship on the red clay at Roland Garros.

It is the first men's title match at the French Open since 2004 without any of Rafael Nadal, Novak Djokovic or Roger Federer. Djokovic was the defending champion in Paris, but withdrew before the quarterfinals after tearing the meniscus in his right knee and had surgery this week. Because he failed to get back to the final, he will drop from atop the ATP rankings, allowing Sinner to rise a spot from No. 2. Sinner entered semifinals with a 13-0 record in Grand Slam play in 2024 after winning the Australian Open. But he showed up in Paris with a hip injury that forced him to sit out of clay tournament last month.

Paolini's dream run

Jasmine Paolini continued her dream fortnight at Roland Garros by following up her singles semifinal victory by reaching the women's doubles final on Friday with Sara Errani.

Zverev settles abuse case

Alexander Zverev, who settled his domestic abuse case after reaching an out-of-court settlement with his former partner on Friday, was in early trouble on court. Facing Casper Ruud for a place in the final, he had lost the first set 2-6 at the time of going to press.

THE BIG WOMEN'S FINAL

Jasmine Paolini stands between Iga Swiatek and a fifth Major at the age of 23. A look at the women's final on Saturday...

Iga Swiatek		Jasmine Paolini
Poland	Country	Italy
23	Age	28
1	Ranking	15
2	H2H	0
4	Majors	0
4	Titles in 2024	1

4 Swiatek is yet to lose a Major final, winning each of her previous four matches

20 The Pole has won 20 straight matches at the French Open with her last loss coming in 2021 (Maria Sakkari)

2015 Paolini is the first Italian woman to advance to the final of a Major since 2015

PROBLEM SOLVER SWIATEK
A lot of keyboards have spoken about the brilliance of Swiatek, how her all-round game is the best in the business. While all that is true, what has allowed her to already become a figurehead of sorts at the age of 23 is her ability to problem solve on court. She is soutterly good with her calculations and it will keep her in good stead against a fierce ball-striker.

PAOLINI'S FOREHAND
In the 2022 edition of the US Open, Swiatek blew away the Italian, losing only three games in the process (6-3, 6-0). While the prospect of a different result appears remote, Paolini's forehand from the baseline has caught opponents off guard in 2024. She has used that shot to great effort on the dirt over the last two weeks.

Jaismine boxing with higher purpose, one punch at a time

ANMOL GURUNG @ Chennai

SPORTS has been a constant in Jaismine Lamboria's family. Former champion boxer Hawa Singh was related to her. Her grandfather was a wrestler. Her uncles were into boxing. Her hometown, Bhiwani, has a rich history when it comes to producing champion sportspersons. And yet, Jaismine is the first woman from the Lamboria family who, after much convincing in her family, was handed the license to express herself in the field of sport.

It was quite a responsibility for Jaismine, who has had natural inclination towards sports. After being encouraged by her uncles, she took up boxing not so long ago. Now, she has an opportunity to lift not just the women in her family and her community but many (aspiring men and women) all over the world. Jaismine fought with real purpose in the recent 2nd World Qualification Tournament in Bangkok to get a step closer to her and her family's dreams. It's clear this latest outcome means the world to her and her family and her latest progress has solidified their belief. "My family put massive faith in me with a thought process that women should also be given a chance to progress. My uncle had entrusted me with that thought process. After the quota, he called and said I did whatever he had expected of me. He also said that now you have created a pathway for other women in and around our circle to dream big," she told this daily. "He's just happy that whatever we had dreamt, the goal that we had set, I was able to achieve the same," she added.

Jaismine Lamboria | BFI

After a step in the right direction, she is naturally eager to go higher in the days to come. Her family, who are naturally upbeat, said as much to her. "They were really delighted. They were quite emotional as well. They were like 'now you shouldn't stop here, you should try and secure your main goal'."

Jaismine is now in a happy place but that was not the case until recently. Despite her undeniable talent, Jaismine, who is a southpaw, was staring at uncertainty after suffering a first-round defeat in the 1st World Qualifying event in Busto Arsizio (Italy) in March.

Moreover, that was her second attempt to qualify for the Olympics. Just when it seemed like she needed to course-correct and wait for her chance, fate smiled on her. After quota winner Parveen Hooda was suspended for whereabouts failure, she was entrusted the responsibility to regain the quota by the Boxing Federation of India (BFI) just a few days before the qualifying event. Pressure was bound to be there for the 22-year-old but she rose to the occasion. "India had high expectations of me. I was also carrying high hopes, my dream was to go there and put my best foot forward. I have achieved one step now. Now, going forward, I want to do well."

Not only was that a last-minute call, she also had to shift from 60kg to 57kg. Ask any pro athlete, cutting weight is not easy. But Jaismine said that it was a smooth process. "I had to control my diet too but it was nothing drastic. If I were consuming two, three rotis (breads), I was having one and instead relying on a liquid diet. It was not like I was starving myself. The BFI nutritionist had planned a diet chart for me. I was kind of prepared and in the end, everything went quite well," the 2022 Commonwealth Games bronze medallist recalled.

Back in the country, she is expected to return to camp in a few days. With the Paris Olympics just 48 days or so away, she is intent on solidifying her game as she chases her dreams.

ORPHANED & ABANDONED IN WILD

ELEPHANT CALVES FIND NEW LEASE OF LIFE IN THE MUDUMALAI CAMP

S V KRISHNA CHAITANYA
@Chennai

ON March 5, a two-month-old orphan female elephant calf in a fragile condition was rescued by Satyamangalam Tiger Reserve (STR) officials in Arepalayam forest. After her mother died, repeated attempts to help the calf join the herd failed as she was malnourished and physically unfit to keep up with the demands of the herd.

In April, a three-month-old male elephant calf was found abandoned in Periyanaicken Palayam forest range in Coimbatore. The whereabouts of the mother was not known. Again, attempts were made to unite the calf with another herd, but turned futile.

In the wild, elephant calves depend on mother's milk entirely for at least the first year for nutrition until they are slowly introduced to solid foods like grasses etc. They remain in herd protection for an initial few years before being weaned off. These two orphan and abandoned calves had zero chances of survival in the wild since they would have become easy prey for predators without herd protection. This is where the role of Theppakadu Elephant Camp inside Mudumalai Tiger Reserve (MTR) becomes pivotal, where these babies find critical nursing care, bond and a new lease of life.

Last year, the Theppakadu camp had hit global headlines with The Elephant Whisperers winning the Oscar for Best Documentary Short Film, which was based on a journey of a couple, Bomman and Bellie and an orphaned baby elephant named Raghu.

Raghu was not the first orphaned baby elephant to have been raised at Theppakadu. Many of the current adult elephants in the camp are either orphaned or abandoned. C Vidhya, Deputy Director of MTR (Core Area) said the camp still now nurtured nine orphan and abandoned calves, of which seven survived.

TNIE had visited the Theppakadu elephant camp to understand what it takes to nurture a baby elephant. "It's not easy," says MTR wildlife veterinarian K Rajesh Kumar. He said the survival chances of an abandoned or orphaned baby elephant, especially those under six months, hangs by a thread.

"In fact, we don't actually name the elephant till it crosses one year because we ourselves are not sure whether the animal will survive. Usually, they will be immunocompromised or have underlying conditions. For instance, the female calf from STR is still fragile. The mother was just skin and bones which meant she was nursing ailments even when this calf was in her womb. We must appreciate the amount of dedication and care shown by elephant caretakers - mahouts and kavadis - at the camp. They are the real differentiators," Rajesh said.

Special care

The camp authorities have built an all-weather proof special shelter with wooden flooring attached with an open yard. The shelter has good ventilation and a perimeter is created, which can be crossed only by the five elephant caretakers who were assigned with the job of raising the calves.

These caretakers have the previous experience of handling calves. Authorities have given an exclusive set of clean clothing and vessels, which are sterilised daily before cooking. Every day, the shelter is cleaned with disinfectants. On diet, Rajesh said every two hours the calves are fed with 1.5 litres of milk replacer, besides calcium and vitamin supplements. "Everything we give is foreign for the calves so monitoring whether their bodies are accepting the food is crucial. The STR calf was down with diarrhea a couple of days back and we had to stop the supplements and alter the diet," he said. To keep them hydrated, especially during summer, daily bathing is given and coconut oil is applied on their bodies. Rajesh and the caretakers told the TNIE both the calves are doing good, but the next six months are going to be crucial. "Once they shift to solid food like grasses, rice and grams, they will be fine."

Supriya Sahu, Additional Chief Secretary, Environment, Forests and Climate Change Department, who regularly visits the Theppakadu elephant camp and closely interacts with mahouts and kavadis, said the government had taken several measures for elephant conservation in the state and also recognise the important role of elephant caretakers.

Chief Minister M K Stalin had, in fact recognising their services, announced houses to be built at a cost of Rs 9.10 crore for mahouts and kavadis who work at the MTR and ATR, besides giving them a payment of Rs 1 lakh each. While the government has taken a conscious decision not to capture and take any wild elephant into captivity, "it is important to provide necessary care to the distressed animals like orphaned and abandoned calves, which Theppakadu camp has been doing for years. Again, on each instance, we try all possible means to reunite the calf with the mother or the herd and we tasted success in some cases," she said.

Since 1910, 85 elephants have been maintained in Theppakadu camp (49 male and 36 female)

51 calves
The camp has facilitated birth of around 51 calves

HISTORY OF PRESENT ELEPHANTS IN MTR CAMP

MAPPING THE HISS STORY OF MALABAR PIT VIPERS

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

WHILE a lot is known about King Cobra, Common Crate and Russell's Viper snakes, little is known about the venomous Malabar Pit Vipers (Craspedocephalus malaricus), which are endemic to the Western Ghats. To understand their habitat, activity pattern and find their antidote, researchers have taken up a detailed radio telemetry study of the species. The species is listed under Schedule-2 of the Wildlife Protection Act, 1972. The World Health Organization (WHO) has listed 15 snakes for which medical supplies should be available; the Malabar Pit Viper (MPV) is fifth on the list. Yet, there is no anti-venom to treat its bite despite the Karnataka government recently listing snake bite as a notifiable disease. A disproportionately large attention is given to the top four venomous snake species - King Cobra, Krait, Saw scaled vipers and Russell's Viper.

Priyanka Swamy, Researcher and Programme Manager, Kalinga Centre for Rain-forest Ecology (KCRE) told The New Indian Express, while there are nine species of Pit vipers, the MPV is endemic to Western Ghats and has the largest spread. But little is known about it. Farmers, villagers, plantation workers and locals come in contact with MPV on a daily basis and are often bitten by them.

"Since so far not much has been known about them, we decided to study the MPVs in detail. In the last couple of years, 156 individuals have been documented. Since these are cold blooded species, their study will also help in knowing the impact of climate change in the rainforest regions of Agumbe. For instance, in 2022-23 many MPVs were sighted, but in 2023-24 their number was less," she said. Noted snake expert and co-founder of KCRE, Gowri Shankar, said, whenever people are bitten by MPVs, they assume it is a King Cobra and panic. But MPV's bite is not fatal. Those bitten experience issues like swelling, high fever, body pain and so on. They are at present being treated for the symptoms and not the venom. Due to the MPV bite, labourers are unable to work until the venom neutralises in the person's body naturally, due to which they lose out on wages. The study will help the government come out with an antidote. Agumbe is on the proposed list of territories that are to be declared as a King Cobra Sanctuary. The region is home to a large population of snakes and its prey base. But in the last few years, rainfall there has been patchy.

I loved being a V.J. It was only much later that I understood the impact of my job when I met people who told me, 'Oh, we followed you and would come back from school to watch you'

Maria Goretti, chef and former VJ

LIFE'S good

If you're a '90s kid, you will remember VJ Maria Goretti, who now dons a chef's hat in Goa where she has moved bag and baggage and lives a quiet life with her husband, actor Arshad Warsi and children

MONIKA MONALISA

MARIA Goretti is a curious learner and it is evident from the number of roles she holds. She is an author, a professional chef and previously she has been an actor and VJ. But she is still at it and still learning.

Goretti leads a very quiet life in Goa where she currently lives with her family in a quaint 150-year-old Portuguese home, which she has restored. But life before that was very different. In the '90s when India was introduced to the VJ culture, Goretti was one name that could not be missed. Everyone wanted to be as fun and stylish as the VJs, and Goretti won't deny that. "I think that was the golden era of music. I was blessed to be part of it," she shares. Looking back, she says, "I did not know the impact we were having on the youth of India. We were all individuals doing the best at a job we loved. I loved being a VJ. There are no two ways about it. But the impact of what we did only happened much later. I understood it when I later met people who told me 'Oh, we followed you and would come back from school to watch you'," she says.

Goretti married Hindi film actor Arshad Warsi in '99 but only registered it recently – 25 years after their wedding. But she was very clear about wanting to take a break after having her kids. "I just didn't want to put any makeup on anymore. I did not want to say 'Hey, everybody. Are you having a good time?' I wanted to stay home and enjoy my kids and I did just that," she says, after which she found her interest in food.

In Bengaluru recently to try out the food at a newly-launched restaurant, Goretti recalls exploring the world of food in 2010. "I started trying out various recipes from the internet, and a friend of mine, who is a writer, pushed me into starting a blog. And that's how I would say my writing and food journey began," she says. Then in 2011, she went to Tante Marie Culinary Academy in London, after which she did a certificate course from Le Cordon Bleu Paris. "I was writing the blog and started getting offers to write a book, which eventually happened in 2016," says Goretti, recalling her book, My Kitchen to Yours.

Her interest in food is not just limited to gourmet delicacies, however. "My interest in Ayurvedic food took me to a school of Ayurveda in 2016 where I learnt about certain foods and nutrition and how they heal your body. Maybe sometime this year, I will learn more about it," says Goretti, who also published her book of poems last year.

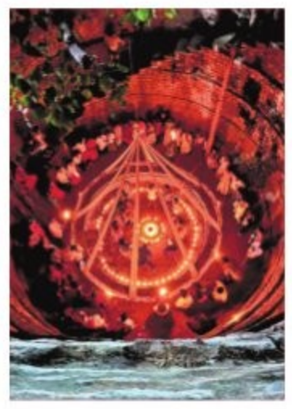
Following her mantra of being open to new learning and experiences, Goretti is happy with where she stands in life and takes each day as it comes.

The 16th edition of the Bhoomi Habba shines light on the severe water shortage that Bengaluru faced this year and the possible sustainable solutions to the problem

Conversation on conservation

MONIKA MONALISA

AMIDST talk of climate change and different eco hazards that the world is facing, Bengalureans can experience the 16th edition of the Bhoomi Habba, an Earth Festival. Hosted at the campus of Visthar, a city-based non-profit that rehabilitates children, this year's Habba focuses on the pressing water crisis affecting Bengaluru. "Bengaluru's water crisis is our thematic focus because we had a very bad summer; we will have workshops, conversations, and per- formances themed around water conservation, recharging," says Mercy Kappen, executive director, Visthar.



This festival will include a list of festival activities – folk dance by the Timbaktu Theatre Troupe, a djembe live performance by an Indian folk band, an eco film screening, theatre plays, community painting sessions, traditional games, cartooning, Warli drawings, handmade papermaking, soil exhibition, and art exhibitions. "Besides the artistic expressions, we have also planned a series of panel discussions and conversations with people who are practitioners and those who have been vocal about climate change," she mentions.

The date also happens to be in time with World Environment Day which was on June 5. Sixteen years since the inaugural edition, Kappen says that the festival has opened up conversations about environmental disasters that the world has been facing. "It has been playing a very important role because we use various forms of communication and demonstrations to convey the message. If we had chosen a theoretical way, it would not have had the sort of impact it has had," she says.

We had a very bad summer; we will have workshops, and performances around the theme of water conservation, recharging etc– Mercy Kappen, executive director, Visthar

Green theme takes centre stage at British Deputy High Commission's UK National Day celebrations

The British Deputy High Commission in Bengaluru hosted the UK National Day, King's birthday party, at the Science Gallery on June 5. Also marking World Environment Day, the installations at the venue reflected the eco-friendly theme, including the UK flag recreated using painted arecanut plates and a portrait of King Charles III made from cardboard boxes as well as highlighting the sustainability of Channapatna toys. The event also highlighted connections between the UK and Karnataka, featuring performances by Rhythm Xchange, artistes participating in a British Council-funded programme.

School highlights hazardous effects of plastic on World Environment Day

Greenwood High International School, Bengaluru celebrated World Environment Day on June 5. The school organised a poster-making contest about a sustainable, plastic-free planet and a tree planting event to raise awareness about environmental issues. Students participated in creating slogans, highlighting the dangers of plastic and planting saplings throughout the school premises. Niru Agarwal, trustee, Greenwood High International School, spoke about the school's commitment to environmental protection and its efforts to encourage the community to reduce plastic use.

FITBIT

ARDHA UTTANASANA BLOCK

(UPWARD FORWARD FOLD BLOCK)

This is a supported beginner-level variation of the foundational Hatha Yoga Pose, Uttanasana (Standing Forward Fold Pose). The use of a yoga block in this forward bend practice acts helps the practitioner stay in the position for longer, releasing tension even from the connective tissues or fascia that support the muscles, organs, bones, joints, and other structures of the body.

STEPS

- Keep a yoga block about a foot ahead of you on the mat. Decide its height depending on your flexibility and comfort.
- You may also use books or solid objects for support. You can even use two blocks to support the respective hand.
- Start in Tadasana (Mountain Pose) with your feet together and spine straight.
- Inhale, place your hands on the hips, and lengthen your spine.
- Exhale, hinge at the hips, and slowly bend forward from your waist.
- Bring the arms forward and reach for the block with both hands.
- The back should be straight and parallel to the ground at hip level. The block should be kept right under the shoulders, providing support as you fold. Keep the feet firmly placed.
- Press your hands firmly into the block to create a stretch in your spine and maintain a flat back.
- Inhale and hold the pose for about six breaths, or as per the body's capacity, while looking down.
- To release, inhale and slowly roll up to a Tadasana. Remove the block and place it on one side.
- Release and relax in Three Part Breath Mountain Pose.

BENEFITS

- Helps lengthen the spine and strengthens the lgs.
- Improves the breathing capacity of the lungs.
- Contracts the chest and abdomen.
- Builds sthiram and sukham in the posture.
- Aids in building a well-toned core, back, and legs.
- Brings balance in the body.
- Helps in toning the spleen, kidney, liver, and reproductive organs.
- Beneficial in reducing anxiety, fatigue, and mental stress.
- Included in Therapeutic Yoga Sequences.
- A useful stretch for students with tailbone pain (coccydynia) or mild lower back pain.
- Strengthens the core, neck, shoulders, and back muscles.
- Helps relieve stress on muscles and joints.
- It can be included in daily yoga routines.

LIMITATIONS

- People with abdominal hernia, joint pains, or hamstring and lower back injuries should avoid this asana.
- Senior citizens, beginners, and pregnant women in their third trimester can do it with a little space between their feet.

MEETING THE MELLOW-FELLOW

RUBINATIONS
Rubi Chakravarti
Writer, actor and funny girl

I cannot begin to express how chilled out and mellow my two-week sabbatical was! I was busy playing 'glamma' to my munchkin who arrived here on a sunny Friday morn', without her mom and just with her father and nanny in tow. Her nanny, a formidable lady from Bengal, was a veritable Mary Poppins and it was great because I realised that entertaining and keeping a highly intelligent toddler (all of 22 months), was a (happily) exhausting task! My baby came with a strict list of instructions from her mom...no sugar, no carbs, no junk, no TV, iPads etc, no biscuits, chocolates and the list went on and on. Very miffed in the beginning (what does she think of herself? Am I a complete dolt? Haven't I raised her?), I slowly got to realise how harmful these things were for her. Here was a fully adjusted, happy child, with barely any tantrum-throwing tendencies, who was bright, intelligent, verbose and curious! Keeping her entertained and engaged was a pleasure. Our winding- down before bed-time was precious! Storytelling, cracking jokes, (yes, she has a great sense of humour) and her chatter was the highlight of my day. Her grandpa, (my gruff hubby) was putty in her hands as she would loudly call for him, (Imchiaazzz!), and hand him his car keys wanting to be taken for a 'dee-rye-vvv'! She left, over the weekend, breaking my heart and teaching me so much. I share this with you my readers, because I did nothing, and felt there was no need to socialise, watch the idiot-box or incessantly scroll the gram. I felt whole and complete and full of love...

Detoxing from social media and the social scene was a relief. I took my time getting back into the groove by meeting only close friends who mattered. There was a long outstanding dinner that I had planned with my friends (purely by chance, nearly all of them were from the hospitality industry!) at this new restaurant, Ouro, where the young chef Cyrus Daniels was thrilled to show off his culinary expertise to the stalwarts of industry. We had ourselves a raucous 'frat' (fraternity) party where everyone knew each other and the agenda was to eat, drink and make merry! It is wonderful to see my friends with their better halves shed their stuffy suits (that was a criteria!) and have a great time.

Chef Masoom, Amit Khare and Chef Anirban Dasgupta

Another long-standing promise to my good-friend Madhav Sehgal, GM/VP the Leela-Palace was to attend a very private party to officially launch a new space, the Maharaja Ballroom in the hotel. Of course, the ambiance, the different cuisines, the well-stocked bars and service was impeccable. It was after a long time that sophisticated old Bangalore was out in full attendance under the starry night in their charming alfresco space.

My week ended on a high note where I got to sample the 'nekki' cuisine introduced at the famed Wabi-Sabi at The Oberoi-Hotel. Nekkei is colloquially used to describe people of Japanese descent in Peru. This cuisine combines Japanese and Peruvian elements and has now become one of the trendiest cuisines to cook up globally. There were a selection of signature ceviches, including classic vegetarian options that held their own impeccably, Wabi-Sabi has outdone itself and raised the bar of Japanese cuisine in namma ooru.

'I DON'T LOOK AT THE FILM INDUSTRY AS A CASH COW'

A SHARADHAA

says Parameshwar Gundkal as he talks about his first directorial venture, Kotee, starring Dhananjay, reflecting on his journey from a farmer to a journalist achieving success on the small screen, and his foray into cinema

Parameshwar Gundkal

Dhananjay

PARAMESHWAR Gundkal, popularly called Param, is known for dabbling in various departments in the world of television. The filmmaker is now all set to make his debut on the silver screen as he gears up for the release of his upcoming directorial, Kotee. The face of the film is none other than Dhananjay, popularly called 'Nata Rakshasa', who is set to feature alongside a star cast. The film, which marks the maiden Kannada production of Jio Studios will feature music by Vasuki Vaibhav, background score by Nobin Paul and cinematography by Arun Brahma.

Speaking about his attraction towards cinema and the film industry, Param shares that it is his passion towards storytelling that has brought him here. "I don't look at the film industry as a cash cow. Money was never the driving force behind my foray into this medium. It's all about storytelling for me," he says, as he goes back to reminisce his days as a farmer and then a journalist. "I've spent years tilling the land, letting stories sprout alongside crops. But life had other plans, nudging me towards journalism in Bengaluru. That's when the idea struck me: why not paint these tales on a bigger canvas? TV seemed like a stepping stone to the cinema industry. However, I did not expect to find success through serials but they became stories that caught the attention of households across Karnataka." Further, on switching gears and foraying into Cinema, he adds, "TV demands quantity while storytelling on the silver screen requires quality. So, here I am to be part of cinema."

As a first-time filmmaker, Param has a profound knowledge of the art of filmmaking. "Filmmaking is like a finely tuned instrument, that requires a balance of emotions and storytelling. It's about orchestrating every scene, every moment, to create a universe that makes audiences sit through the runtime. I think of it like being a complex engineer. And let me tell you, it's been quite the journey. I thrive on being a keen listener, soaking in the details of every tale. There's a certain magic in listening, a joy in the art of understanding, and cinema has truly opened my ears to that."

Coming to Kotee, the titular character played by Dhananjay, Param has drawn from his own experiences to craft the character, making him a reflection of his personality. "Every writer balances fact and fiction," Param muses, explaining the interplay between reality and imagination that forms the basis of his storytelling. "With Kotee, I sought to craft a protagonist steeped in authenticity, drawing upon my experiences and introspections. I kept searching for a character, only to realise it is me who I know best," says Param.

Despite its lavish production values, Kotee is billed to be a commercial entertainer which remains rooted in the aspirations of the common man, portraying dreams that often seem unattainable. "The production of Kotee was a planned endeavour, spanning eighty-five days of filming. The importance of investment is not only in monetary terms but also in the dedication of time and effort. I view cinema as a complex medium, humbled by its creative possibilities and the challenges it presents," he says.

Param describes Moksha Kushal's character, named Navami as, "a foil to the protagonist." He adds, "Navami is a Chartered Accountant who often approaches Kotee as he is a cab driver. Her character represents a contrast to the hero," says Param, who also lauds the performances of the cast, especially actor Dhananjay, and recognizes their ability to elevate the narrative. "Storywise, the outcome might be debatable. But performancewise, every actor part of the film, from Dhananjay and Rangayana Raghu to Tara, among others, has set the bar too high. It will be a treat to watch their performance on screen," reveals Param.

Param says that the title Kotee, which translates to a crore, represents the emotional significance of money stressing that it's not merely about financial wealth but the deeper human experiences. "Kotee connects with the urban youth, offering a reflection of their dreams and aspirations. Through the titular character, audiences will find a relatable figure whose struggles mirror their own," he says.

Reflecting on the filmmaking process, Param likens it to a daily marriage fraught with ego and logistical challenges. "The process of filmmaking is tricky. I have brought my experience working in the Kannada reality show Bigg Boss and a big event like the Anubhava Awards to filmmaking. However, as a storyteller, cinema is a complex medium. Creative possibilities are unlimited. If anything, I have become less arrogant after making this film," he says.

As a newcomer to the industry, Param approaches Kannada cinema with humility, prioritising storytelling over commercial success. "I seek to earn the appreciation of crores of people through my craft and remain true to my vision. I want to share the story of Kotee with every Kannada-speaking audience," he signs off.

E KRISHNAPPA

Mungaru Male producer E Krishnappa and director Yogaraj Bhat reunite for a project after 16 years

CE FEATURES

The makers, who will make the official announcement soon, are looking to cast fresh faces

PRODUCER E Krishnappa and Yogaraj Bhat, the duo behind the golden hit Mungaru Male starring Ganesh, Pooja Gandhi as leads, and Anant Nag in a pivotal role, are reuniting after 16 years. This time, they're shaking things up by considering fresh faces for their project. The casting process is underway, with an official announcement expected soon.

Mungaru Male created waves in the Kannada film industry, earning acclaim and shattering commercial records. It made history as the first film in India to run continuously for over a year in a multiplex, with an unmatched box-office performance. Breaking barriers, it set a milestone for South Indian cinema and spawned remakes in multiple languages, promoting Ganesh to 'Golden Star' status and cementing his place in the industry.

With this collaboration, Krishnappa and Yogaraj are looking to create history again. Currently busy with pre-production, the director is gearing up to start filming this month.

Directors: Adil El Arbi, Bilall Fallah

Cast: Will Smith, Martin Lawrence, Rhea Seehorn, Vanessa Hudgens

BAD Boys is a franchise that you revisit not for its radical reinvention of the buddy cop formula. It is the friend of a friend you met that one time, whose name you forgot but you still remember him for bringing a certain energy to the day. Bad Boys: Ride or Die is bustling with that brand of infectious energy that fills up every frame.

The film opens in high gear, as we are re-introduced to our favourite duo through a quirky store robbery scene. They handle a tense situation with signature style and humour. Even though disconnected from the rest of the film, the short intro scene, which solely exists as a character introduction, is nevertheless charming. This tendency to cook up a vibe and elevate the mood at the cost of storytelling pervades the entire film and that is exactly the nonchalance of this franchise that we know and love.

The first thing the film gets right is the bromance between Mike Lowrey (Will Smith) and Marcus Burnett (Martin Lawrence). You feel the brotherly bond between the two without it slapping your face or soaking you with buckets of melodrama every minute. The film begins with Mike's wedding where Marcus gets a heart attack. With a life-changing, post-attack clarity, Marcus decides to carpe diem, leading to a hilarious string of scenes where he declares he cannot die, walks into oncoming traffic, and tries to pet a giant hungry alligator. Marcus' character arc starts off both funny and interesting, and the film fails to leverage much of its ingrained potential. The interesting trajectories the screenplay could have taken off Marcus' evolution are instead supplanted with a painfully weak central conflict and an insipid revenge subplot. The primary antagonist leaves a lesser imprint than droplets of water on a hot pan. We forget about him, his objectives, his motivations, and his plans the moment he steps off the frame. This does not mean that his existence is justified when he steps into the frame as well. However, the faint oppressive tension that our protagonists feel throughout the film, is enough to keep us engaged.

RATING 3/5

Will Smith, who usually explodes with charisma and energy on screen, seems to be trudging through every scene while Martin Lawrence does all the heavy lifting. Even during the action scenes, the dynamic visuals have to make up for the lack of energy in the punches. Bad Boys: Ride or Die provides a singularly spectacular reason why you need to watch it despite the flaws: The childish passion of its visual language. Perhaps no one else in the film has more fun than the directors Adil and Bilall and cinematographer Robrecht Heyvaert. With the smooth transition from drone shots to chest-mounted cameras, and POV shots that jump along with the gun as it flies from Mike to Marcus, the visuals have the playful inventiveness of a kid who got every toy they wanted for their birthday. The unapologetically over-the-top style of the film pulls you in every time the exposition shoves you further into the state of mind where you feel indifferent to the proceedings on screen. The scene where the camera rig swivels like a snake around the transparent exterior of an elevator during a tense hand-to-hand gunfight is one of many visual peaks in the film. The escape from a soon-to-crash helicopter is another instance where you catch yourself drowning all your criticisms in child-like glee. The film goes all in on the big ending fight in an abandoned alligator park, where almost every new cinematic technique is employed, perfectly stitched together, to give you a roller coaster-like experience. Bad Boys: Ride or Die hooks you in with a wholesome bromance, almost half-heartedly wades through a weak central conflict, and still manages to win you by the end through its sheer tenacity to have fun with its wacky energy, inventive visuals, and unapologetic style.

Bad Boys: Ride or Die makes a compelling case for the fact that sometimes, maybe, style over substance is not a bad thing after all, especially when the effort is charmingly earnest and the passion in the making leaps off the frames and you can feel the energy.

A tale of digital obsession marred by flawed execution and lacklustre act

A SHARADHAA

ANARTHA

Director: Ramesh Krishna Neenasam

Cast: Vishal Mannur, Vihani Gowda, Rakshit Atharva, Ganesh Ganu, Vijay Kumar and Arpita Navarasa

RAMESH Krishna Neenasam's Anartha offers a sobering and disconcerting portrayal of obsession with mobile phones. Tackling the digital age head-on, the film delves into the dark side of mobile addiction, depicting how it consumes individuals to the point of endangering their relationships in a way that can even lead to murder. Anartha digs deep into the consequences of our reliance on technology, revealing the disturbing extent to which it can control our lives.

Amidst a series of 13 mysterious suicides sending shockwaves through the town, Avakash (Vishal Mannur) and Akruthi (Vihani Gowda), two individuals with troubled pasts, find themselves drawn together by fate. With whispers of dark forces at play and the fear of becoming the next victims looming over them, they retreat to a secluded place, seeking solace and safety. As they navigate the eerie surroundings and their own inner demons, a sense of unease settles upon them like a heavy fog. Will Avakash and Akruthi find comfort in each other's company, or will they become unwitting pawns in a sinister game by unseen hands?

Vijay Kumar plays Advaith, a seasoned detective with a keen eye for detail who, along with his sister Lasya (Arpita Navarasa), finds himself entangled in the web of clues left behind by the deceased, Jonathan (Ganesh Ganu). Determined to unravel the truth behind the string of deaths, he follows the leads with unwavering determination, even as the shadows of doubt and suspicion loom large. As the suspense mounts and secrets are uncovered, Avakash and Akruthi find themselves caught in a race against time. Will they uncover the sinister truth lurking beneath the surface, or will they succumb to the same fate that befell those 13 victims before them? Can Inspector Advaith piece together the puzzle before it's too late?

RATING 2/5

Despite its lofty aspirations and the earnestness of its societal commentary, Anartha flounders in execution. Director Ramesh's ineptitude in articulating the narrative's weighty themes yields a disjointed storyline that struggles to capture the attention of the minimal audience.

The deficiencies of the film goes beyond Ramesh's direction; even the cast disappoints with amateurish and lacklustre performances. Their inability to pull off their respective roles convincingly negatively impacts the film's integrity.

While the film occasionally hooks its audience with unexpected twists, it eventually becomes predictable, leaving viewers feeling disappointed. Even Nagendra Prasad's music doesn't serve its purpose. It's only towards the end that the real culprit is revealed, giving the story a much-needed boost. By then, however, you're just itching to leave the theatre.
